“Welcome to the [Dragon Emperor’s Mistletoe] Inn.”

(How many times have I repeated this already?) In the capital city of the Kingdom of Oaklen, Qlancran, stood a quiet inn.

[The Dragon Emperor’s Mistletoe]

Standing there, the owner of the inn, Carla Grace, was engrossed in her own thought.

The ‘Dragon Emperor’s Mistletoe’ had quite a few selling points.

For example, the ‘fee’

——Cheap. At any rate, cheap.

For example, the ‘food’

——Delicious. At any rate, delicious.

And above all else, ‘Carla Grace’

——Stunningly beautiful, with the height of 173cm, owning a peerless and flawless body.

Regardless of age and gender, everyone is sure to be captivated by her. Simply to say, lovely and gorgeous.

However, this Carla actually had a secret that she absolutely couldn’t tell anyone.

And that is.....

The fact that... she is a former male cross-dimensional ‘tripper’.

—Reminiscence—

Lemme introduce myself, my name is Takahasi Ryuuta. I graduated from so so university, then I got to work at a so so company, and this year I will turn into a 28 years old so so old man. Some of you might say that 28 is still young, but reality says otherwise. How can I claim to be young when I’d immediately turn into a pregnant woman when I stopped exercising.

Because today is the long awaited and missed day-off, I'll just take it slow and relax all day. Well, at least I had planned to do so.

"A familiar ceiling."

——It's the ceiling of my room which I'm used to seeing, lol.

However....

"I'm truly sorry!!!"

(Who the hell is blondie. Why the heck is she suddenly apologising to me?) "I'm truly sorry!!"

(Moreover, isn't it the endangered 'Dogeza'? Who does that nowadays?!) "I'm truly sorry!"

(.....Well, for now)

"I'm truly sr... "

"STFU! And why is your '!' mark decreasing every time!"

——Beki!

"Rry...asdfghjkl! It hurts!!"

"Problem?" (͡° ͜ʖ ͡°) ♪

"No, no, no. Not at all, no way...."

(Not complaining? Well, that's fine) "So, who the heck are you, [Random Dogeza Girl]?"

"Don't give me such a weird nickname! I'm the Supreme God!"

"Sue Primgott? An artist from Belgium?"

"No I'm not!! I'm the S-U-P-R-E-M-E-G-O-D! The highest and the most powerful deity!!"

(Hee.... The Supreme God is it... That's amazing.....

Wait..... The Supremeeeeee GOD!!!)

"Ehem. I'm the (^^)v Supreme God."

"So, what does the 'Supreme God' want with someone like me? It seemed to me that you were apologising before."

"Eh!? You're over it already!?"

..... That's weird. I thought we'd still be talking about my amazingness as a Supreme God.....mumble mumble

(Well, things like these show up a lot in novels) "Back on topic, what do you want from me, you Supreme God(lol)-san?"

"It feels like something weird was written besides my name there for a sec....."

———Ahem! Let me explain!

Takahasi Ryuuta-san! You have died!!"

Hah?

"You have passed away!!"

Hah?

"You have rose upon the horizon of perfect endless day!!"

(Okay, calm down. Stop using difficult words.

I get the gist, really, I'm so shocked -_-) "I'm being serious here. You have truly died."

".....Seriously!? Why!? I'm still young, aren't I!?"

——Ah I see! How cliché! [I made a blunder and have accidentally killed you~

As an apology you will have the chance to reincarnate into a different world with cheat-like powers]. That must be it!!! How cliché I'd say!

Yahoo!! Woohoo! Superpowers, cheats, I'm OP, and I'll..."

"You're wrong!!!"

(I am? But I'm sure you were apologising) "I didn't kill you by mistake. Your lifespan ended, that's all. Your l-i-f-e-s-p-a-n!!!"

(Lifespan? I died because of my lifespan? At 28?

——Rather, why were you apologising if I died because of my lifespan?) “——Eee, for the time being, I guess I’ll have to explain Two months after your 28th birthday, you will die in your sleep, for one reason or the other.

That was written on the Lifespan Registry of the God Council, so there’s no mistake.”

“Hold on, what the heck is [one reason or the other]!?”

“You must not concern yourself too deeply on these things. To be honest, I just couldn’t be bothered coming up with a reason. It was 28 years ago.....

That is that and this is this, but the reason why I was apologising to you was because I accidentally put a dead guy from another world into your spot in the cycle of reincarnation.

Because of that there’s no space left, you have nowhere to go.

Basically, you can’t enter the cycle of reincarnation.

That’s how it is. Teehee☆”

(She freakin’ said [Teehee☆]..... Heck!!!

I don’t get it! How the hell did she put someone else by mistake in the first place!?) “Don’t sweat the details. Just treat it as ‘Deus Ex Machina’ for now. Currently, you have three options.

Wait for a vacancy in the cycle of reincarnation.

Roam around as a ghost.

To another world : GO!!!

Personally, I suggest going to another world!

The cover-up will be much easier that way.... whisper whisper”

“Did you mutter something just now?”

“Nu nu nu nu ai deed noot sey enything, at all....

——so, which one do you choose?"

(Suspicious... This is way too suspicious) "If you pick no.3, I don't mind giving you a cheat you know?"

(What!? I can get a cheat!? It's obviously suspicious, but cheat is alluring) Let me make a confession. To tell you the truth, I, Takahasi Ryuuta, am a bona fide Otaku. A closet otaku to boot. While keeping this fact a secret, I kept reading novel after novel.

Especially that biggest Japanese web novel site, "Shousetsu ni narou ze yo!", is so amazing!! It was filled with the fantasy and delusions of countless people jammed together! As I was reading stories about OP and strong protagonists I would be so immersed into it that I would ended up having delusions about it again and again.

(Has the time come for me to shine as an OP protagonist!? Sweet. How sweet this is.

It's so good that it even feels suspicious) "Which one would you choose?"

"Obviously, no.3 duh!!"

Just like that, my trip to another world begins-Soon.

Volume 1 :: Chapter 2 Journey to Another World

Hey, short time no see ☆ because the Supreme God(lol) said that, for now, "I choose no.3!! Journey to another world!!!" I shouted.

I'm Takashi Ryuuta, you damn pig.

...It was a terrible Nishioka impression... I'm sorry. (1)

For the time being, please continue reading my reminiscence.

"By the way, what do you want for your cheat? It's a big chance you know!! I can grant most wishes if you want?"

(What should I choose.....

——This tryhard blonde beauty is supposed to be a Supreme God, right?) "You can ask for anything you know~

Whether it's limitless stamina, limitless magic power, or even immortality.

You can basically wish for anything like those in anime, manga, or games~

For example,

The As-hole Golden King's 'Dokodemo Treasury' (Probably the Gate of Bab*lon), or The Tryhard Boy's 'It Was Never Real' (Was It All F*ction?), or That Dragon Request series' 'This Damned King Again?' (It Would Be Pathetic to Die), or That Definitely is Not the Last Fantasy series 'Victory Fanfare' (The Thing That Plays at the End of a Battle), Anything thing is okay~" (2)

(Are the last two even cheats? Rather, isn't 'Victory Fanfare' just a BGM!?) "I think that it's already a cheat for a single BGM to actually last through an entire series just like that"

(Well, it's true that there were barely any changes to it, and it's certainly a wonderful BGM, but....) “Well, let’s leave it at that for now. I’m more interested in hearing about the world I’ll be going to”

(I’d be interested after all)

“.....Ee~ It’ll be a world of swords and magic. There will be demi-humans, and even dragons, etc.”

(I see..... Then..)

“Will there be wars and the like after all?”

(I’d be interested after all. ——Wait, I reacted the same way twice!!)
“There will be no such things. The world is fundamentally peaceful. Occasionally monsters appear and attack the villages, but that’s all.

Have you considered which ability you want to get?”

(Well, if it’s peaceful then...)

“I wanna be a girl.”

(As expected, I know myself the best)

“.....Hah?”

“I wanna be a girl.”

“No no no no no, please wait a sec!! ——Why so suddenly!?

You were like ‘Cheat, Yahoo!’ just a moment ago, weren’t you?

And now suddenly you want to be a girl!? I don’t understand this development at all!!!!”

(Well, it would probably seem so, but....)

“Aren’t you the Supreme God? I thought you knew everything about me?

If you do, you should have already known that I always use female characters in the virtual world”

I am what you’d call a ‘G.I.R.L’ (TL: Guy In Real Lyfe) Even though recently I’ve been receiving unfair treatment akin to those received by nasty swindlers..... (3)

However, I won't accept this treatment!!

Virtual world exists for the sake of experiencing the things we can't do in real lyfe!!

Ugly people can become an ikemen!! (TL: Handsome/Good-looking guy) Old people can become young again!!

If so then, guys can become girls!!

That's what the virtual world is!!

In the virtual world, I become a girl!!

"That's why, every time I read web novels, I was always thinking....

If I ever went to another world, I'd do it as a girl!!!"

I was a 100% serious.

Isn't it like, one of boys' top 10 dreams? Don't we all deep down, somewhere in our hearts, have this desire to try being a girl? Is it wrong for me to wish for that?

Furthermore, fortunately, 'My Age ≠ No Girlfriend Time'. I believe that I've had quite a bit of experience. You could say that I've lived a fulfilling live as a guy.

Therefore, for this second life of mine, I wanna try being a 'girl'.

I believe my reason is just.

"Is that so.... Seeing that you're as passionate Matsuoka Shuuzou, I guess it can't be helped. I'll send you to another world as a girl. However..... (4)

As this won't be a reincarnation, but a dimension crossing, a 'trip', I'm going to be remodelling your body, you know?

It'll hurt a lot, you know?

There'll probably be a problem caused by the disparity between your body and mind, you know?

Even then, would you still like to continue?"

The Supreme God sounded worried.

Her face was saying, "There was someone who asked the same thing before, and he turned into a cripple (not the african-american gang), you know?" and I could feel the silent pressure. However.....

"Of course it's fine! —well, for the mental and physical gap, I hope you can somehow do something about it."

I had already decided on my answer.

"By all means. Then, what would you like for the other cheats? You haven't even used 1% of your 'wish' bar."

(So there was something like that!! But, for the rest.....) "Then..... Just give me enough to survive!!!

If I'm not going to be fighting any demon lords or do things like those then I'd be happy with just that much."

(Well, It's not like I wanna be OP or anything like that. Just enough to live is fine.) "Understood! Then I'll tune your body to the max!! Please look forward to it."

The Supreme God said, with a brilliant smile.

(.....!?! Nobody asked for that, you know!!!?) "——Now, by the time you open your eyes, you should already be over on the other side.....

Well then..... Enjoy your life there!!"

As I heard that, my body was enveloped by a black..... more like, a darkish sphere.

"Hey, isn't this a bad omen cliché~~~!!!"

Or so I screamed, before I lost my consciousness in the next instant.

"So he's finally gone..... What funny guy. Interesting.

Now then..... Time to change the records before Ten-chan arrives♪

Alter♪Falsify♪Fake it♪"

While watching the black sphere which enveloped 'Takahashi Ryuuta', the Supreme God began to change the records like nothing had happened.

And so, I, 'Takahashi Ryuuta', began my journey to another world.

When I opened my eyes, before me was....

"An unknown ceiling.....

Like hell!!"

Before me was a blue sky without even single cloud present.

(Where the heck am I....!?)

I stood up in a hurry and looked at my surroundings.

A meadow. Everywhere was green. It was simply beautiful. A grassland as far as the eye could see....

"What a pleasant scenery. But, where is this?

That Supreme God said something about me waking up in another world but....."

I could hear a girl talking to herself in the middle of the grassland. Her voice might be around the lower-range for girls, but it sounded a bit high-pitched in general.

Though, the girl turned out to be me all along.

(Ah right. That Supreme God certainly said so.

Then, this must be somewhere in another world, right?) "That is cor~rect♪

We're currently in the Meadow of Mal tai. This place is just a little bit west from the capital, Kranclan☆"

Suddenly, the voice of the Supreme God resounded in my head.

"Urgh! How disgusting! A weird voice is entering my head!

This feels bad..... as bad as a hangover....I wanna throw up now (T o T)" —I feel really down to the point where it can't be explained.

—I recall the time when I stayed over at an intimate couple's house.
—The memory of being shown a doll-like smiling face for a long time vividly came to me.
—The sound of an incoherent quarrel at night when one should be sleeping echoed in my mind.
—The smile on the next day like nothing had happened.
—Somehow, I came to distrust human. (5)

(I can't take this..... Should I just die.....) "Sto~~oppp! Why would you suddenly distrust human just like that!!

Please, I'm about to explain a lot of things from now!! (' ; ω ; `)"

(If that's the case then fine.)

I revived.

"———dumbfounded———"

"What's wrong, Supreme God? Come on, explain quickly."

".....I think you recovered a bit too fast."

(Well, that's what makes me great, isn't it.) "Well, more importantly. Isn't it inconvenient for you to call me 'Supreme God' 'Supreme God' every time? I don't mind if you call me Sue from now on, you know?"

(Sue? Isn't that the name of the Belgian artist.....?) "Somehow I like it♪

I've decided. From now on, my name is Sue Primgott.

Thank you for your attention.

Well then, it's a bit sudden but I'm going to start the explanation."

"As long as you like it. Then, the explanation please."

I patiently waited for Sue to start talking....

(...Eh? Is it not yet?)

"...Hey, Sue. What's the wait?"

Perhaps it was a mistake to ask.

"Please wait a moment. The explanation material is still being faxed.

Aa~ I typed the wrong number!! Now I have to redo it all over again..... (π——π) How could you do this to me! Even though I've finally reached the 87th digit!!"

"I know I should apologise here but, A FAX!? How does that even work here!? And why the heck is it so long!?"

I ended up launching a barrage of tsukkomi.....

There was a lot more I wanted to say, but first, "Haa.....sorry. I'll patiently wait for the fax."

----- Compilation of the God's settings ----- (Carla and the other cannot saw this ----- let's made it like that) Main Character setting :

Main character that dead because of short life span. Because of some reason that the supreme deity didn't understood it's decided that he will live in the other world.

At the time when he transported to the different world he wanted to had his sex changed to a girl, a secluded otaku nekama-kun.

Even though he's quite a otaku however he's not a neet. He properly had a job.

After his sex changed he's called as 『Carl・Grace 』.

Her skin's color is dark brown with that beautiful slight hanging eyes a peerless beautiful woman.

According to supreme deity's order to arranged the perfect part for her, she get hold of a beauty to the extent that it's called as【 Divine act】.

Colour of the hair is white-ish silver.

Her attire is, the one that's perfectly fit for her body, something such as a black dress, it seems that the leg that peeked out from the underfoot slit is dazzling. It can also said that it was a dress that conceal those plumply figure which made people slightly troubled where to look at.

Her cheat ability is not something to look down at !!!

A sinful woman that will charm a lot of people from now on.

Main character background setting :

The god arranged for her to get rejuvenated into 20 years old to give a little bit the feeling of getting reincarnated.

By wrapped in black sphere for reconstructed her body she was restructured to the genetic level.

Because of that she was inside the black sphere for 20 years.

Since she was restructured from genetic level , her body composition gotdisassembled for once and then she got rebuild from scratch. And because of that, she was growth from baby to 20 years old, but since it's happened in an instant the person itself didn't remembered it.

She was given various information as she growth is also given under the name of【opportunism】.

It's made that she possessed the skill Smile blush-like cheat so that basically she will not laugh.

Supreme deity setting :

Saiko・Ushin as the main character give that name to the 『The highest of the god』 (10)

Even so, she was the sole god so there's no other god.

Her appearance is blonde, beautiful girl. (The rest its just do according to one's imagination) The attire is "that" thing that common for god.

An awesome person that control over everything. (11)

Almost never come out in society.

Dispatch angel for the sake of the world management.

And thus, all of the god that the country all around the world had a faith in it is the angels of the world scout team.

Supreme deity's background setting:

Formerly is a handsome young man.

Was supposedly a person that had a wicked personality that's scheming to send the main character to another world since she had a lot of free time.

The "thing that's fun lately" for supreme deity is 『Meteorite billiard for made the solar system 』or that what was she planned to do.

The first one in the continent which established the Adventurers Guild, the biggest country in the continent as the result of the adventurer 『Kail -Ooklan』who is an adventures that is a former noble which aimed for improvement in status.

The king is not hereditry-system, it was chosen in an ritual to choose the person who is suitable to become the king named 『Klan's Guidance 』.

There's also that if it's judged that if the current king is not suitable in his lifetime then by the ritual implement then it's possible that the king will changed.

Since the king originally is a former adventurer, also as the land where the Adventurer Guild originate the number of the adventurers is numerous.

Currency, language or such using the one which common in the continent.

Their Faith is dedicated to their sole god『Klan』the 『Klan's Creed』

Two big Major power :

It's pointed to the 『El-klan empire』and 『Mil-klan Kingdom』.

Among the country in the Klan continent which is fundamentally close they were specially close.

El-klan Empire is boasted with it's high level , magic technology, along with it's Science and tech , it's also created magic item and such.

Because their trade with Mil-klan Empire, they received abundant amount of the blessing of the nature.

Mil-klan with the high tech received from El-klan, they used it to protected their nature.

However since inside Mil-klan Kingdom other than demi-human is prohibited to live, every human and half-ing had to go to other country. (But there's no restriction when entering the country thus people can still do trade and such)

Again, is it perhaps because their high pride, high elf race is the only one who openly strongly opposed the coexistence with other country.

Demon's garden :

The general term for the settlement of the demons.

For demon they didn't had any sense of something like country and king thus there's a lot that frankly associated with anybody.

Their livelihood with 20 - 100 person who're called as elder on the top of the list.

However, about the information how they choosen the elder or how they coordinated inside their village is unknown.

Though they possessed high intelligence and huge amount of magical power, there's a lot of time that they regarded same as monster so they're basically never come out from the garden.

(Inside the legend and stuff it's stated that demon lord born among the demon)

Klan - Lead :

The habitat of the dragon.

Full of people who's one rank stronger than the other monster.

(..... It's unexpectedly common setting eh)

『We~ll it's the result of trying creating the world where you can do adventure you know♪ I am, hate that kind of thing where people doing quarrel with each other after all』

[I understand, that why you created peaceful world eh . ---- Then the continue ?]

『Ah ! Then next I will tell you about common thing at this continent』

Klan's Creed :

The religion that believe over the only god 『Klan』,near 90% of the people in Klan continent is entering the faith of this religion.

[Everything is under the God『Klan』! !] or they had such a doctrine.

The fact that there's a lot of place named after Klan, is also because the world is considered to be the creation of Klan.

The only god 『 Klan 』:

World scout unit's angel which is sent by supreme deity. Since her purpose is for scouting thus he didn't got any of divine protection.

(They're into Klan eh ~ . Isn't almost all of it monopolized by Klan right?)

『We~ll I'm also surprised you know. To think that the Angel that I sent to scouting become called as 『The sole god Klan』right ♪ (LOL)』

(..... Or rather, Klan is really awesome eh. What do you mean with the ratio of the faith is 90% eh!?)

『The culprit itself seems happy that he got called as the 『sole god 』 and disregard myself you know 』

『 ---- Even now he was doing the 45 degree jumping dogeza in front of me you know 』

(Is that so it was hard for him eh, the middle management angel 『Klan』is)

Klan Language :

The common language that used everywhere in the continent.

As due to region there will be different accent of speaking but it's not something that worth concern.

Frankly the letter is just rotate the alphabet 90 degree.

The word is made by Romaji entry. The grammar is no different from Japanese.

The information already done input inside the main character.

(What is this, Input『Finished』thing is !? When did you insert it ! ?)

『Ah, that's 【Opportunism】. That's the consideration from me so that you will not have any problem with your daily life.』

[Ah, thank you, very much]

『Don't worry, then next I will explain about the currency to you. This is will be faster if you could see the real thing right.

Well then from the smallest currency 』

(..... Hmm ? currency? the real thing ?)

[Wait, I didn't receive any of that thing you know?]

『 eh? Did I didn't send it So I didn't send it eh

I'll send it to you right now. Please wait for a moment』

(Again, I have to wait for a long time eh)

Just now, me who heard that she will sent it to me thought that it will be something that took long time like the FAX, lament inside my heart.

But ,

『 Okay . I already send it 』

(? eh ? Isn't this is remarkably fast ? Re-dial ? Anyway it's good
---- Again, will it break the space just like the FAX I wonder? I'm looking forward to it)

----- excited

..... i .

----- excited

..... i i i .

----- *exci ?

---- Dziiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiing !!! -----

Dbooooooooooooooooooooooooom !!!!!!!

[WOAH !!!]

The high pitched tone which seems like it was come from a jet airplane or such that flying straight with the speed faster than the speed of sound

at the same time as that because of something that came flying crashed to the ground, the exploding sound it produce striked my body.

[What is it !! ?]

Inside the dense cloud of dust that enshroud me, I am stare at the object that come flying here.

(..... Gold ? No, other than that there's also silver and Copper!
?)

Over there, there's the thing that perhaps called as real thing by Unsin which is a currency that create approx 50cm crater.

(No no no ! ? For that kind of sound this crater is too small right ! !
-- Rather than that.....)

[Isn't that dangerous oi Unshin !!! Can't you give it gently like the FAX !!!]

It cannot be helped that Clara ended up yelled.

『Eeh bu~t , if I send it with something like FAX then inputting the coordinate of the designation , for the space leap or such is really bothersome you know 』

(Annoyiing, that is an endlessly annoying way of speaking. If she is right here then I already plucking every last strand of that blonde !)

『--- Sorry . Even myself is getting a bit annoying Well , since this time I didn't had much time so I throw it with all my might 』

[..... Eh ! ? That's you throwing it ? ! How strong are you !]

『Well after all even if I am just someone who's have slacking life who is reading the whole volume of 『KO○KAME』in just 2 hours when killing time I am is still the supreme deity after all ☆

If it's something with the distance like 49825 light year then its something easier than throwing ball from one side to the other side of 6 tatami room you know 』

『 ----- Then, I will continue my explanation okay 』

(..... Wait, isn't light year is a distance that will take 1 year with the speed of light right ? These currency are come in just several second !? or rather finishing the whole 『KO○KAME 』in just 2 hours is not on the level of speed reading you know !?)

『This currency is the Klan 』

As expected, no matter what I said to Unshin who's already entered the explanation mode is useless (Weep)

(Like I said this is a bullying alright)

Klan currency :

It's divided by 3 type Gold, silver and copper.

1 Gold = 100 Silver. 1 Silver = 100 copper.

Cannot answer if asked how much is it when converted to Japanese yen.

As expected or rather at the coin's surface there's Klan God picture on it.

Though how this is possible is mysterious but it can be obtained by defeating a monster.

『Well, maybe it's something like that hmmm ?』

sobbing, weeping.

『Why are you crying ? For now the explanation is over you know ? After this you will be living in other world you know ?』

[----- Isn't it because you've been ignoring me you know !!!]

I felt refreshed after shouting.

Yep, doing something like sobbing is not something like me after all.

『Nyoya ! Don't suddenly shouting you !!! - - - Rather than that, since the explanation is over it's about my time to withdraw』

(Eh ? So this is farewell ?)

With the farewell statement, even though it for just a moment, we had our time together so I felt somehow or other lonely.

『Well, from the beginning I am supposed to not meddle too much in the world you know ----- Well I will be looking over this world through Klan after all so please enjoy your life after this』

(Is that so , then it can't be helped right, I will enjoy my life after this with all my might alright)

『Kay, well then good bye ~ 』

While remembered the slight lonely feeling after heard the voice of Ushin's last word, I started to walk toward the royal capital.

And thus the short but felt long time together with Ushin end, it was the start of my life as Clara.

[----- as expected maybe it's better to use the ladylike I(watashi) ?
----- What should I do with this bunch of paper]

『Fyuuh~ I already done the explanation after all, after this it's gonna be alright if I just take a peek sometimes right』

『 ----- hmmm ? Ten-chan ? Is there's something matter ?
What with that nice smile ! ? 』

----- That day, the god's pleading voice which is echoed inside the sacred place is raised an tremble among all of the angels or so it said.

The blank space at the below of the FAX that sent by Unshin.

----- Compilation of the God's settings ----- (Carla and the other cannot saw this ----- let's made it like that)

The reason that the king is a former noble, 【Noble had power that's surpass that of the commoner】there was such kind of background setting.

More specific then it means【It's easier for strength to got higher】 【It's easier for magic power to got higher】Or such.

Please thought this as the status Up assistance that given to the tittle called as Noble.

Again, just to remind that it's a word that had the outlook of the Role play world so there's also Level Up and such.

Thus the main spindle is Role play.

It's stated that the explanation about the currency if converted to japanese yen is cannot be done,

Frankly said it's because examine each of the thing's price and applied it is to bothersome that's why. (LOL)

Can you come to understanding.

This is the last notice from Unshin.

Please treat me well to at the next story.

Though I said that she will not be peerless but I will do it for a little bit.

Since I never done any description of combat, it's made me bit nervous but I will do it before long.

Well then.

Volume 3 :: Chapter 1

Heading toward the imperial capital

There's one woman walked on this vast prairie.

Tanned skin, white long hair that's flowed until her back, shining beauty, splendid proportion, those superb balance that made one wonder if it's something that arranged by god which is offered to this world in that 173 cm height.

There's no way for such a girl to be able walk in peace in this world if she was just alone.

----- Without even realized the 6 pair of eyes that aimed at herself, Carla - Grace continued to walked.

----- It's bothersome eh ~. It's quite far away you know ? until the imperial capital

I kept grumbled inside my mind as I kept walk while looking at one sheet of paper.

Thought I supposed to be in the 『Marutai Prairie』which is located just a little bit west from the imperial capital, but even now I still didn't able to get out from this prairie.

After I separated from Supreme God immediately I went toward the east and is already about 2 hours passed.

Right now the sun is already slightly pass right above my head.

----- However for the paper that I held to vanished, as expected the god civilization is amazing eh.

It's truly like that. After I walked a little bit the paper is vanished like it was melted.----- what left is only one piece of paper in my hand.

Just as I thought that the only one piece of map(?) left.

The only thing that I able to see is the thing that's inside my eyesight and the rest is blank.

It's truly map that style can be usually seen inside a game where only showing the area where I've been there.

Though I saved since I'm able to know the only direction.....

----- Well, this is maybe something that's called as Unshin's consideration right ----- But even so, what are those three people sneaking around like that ? for about twenty minutes we were walked toward the same direction so I thought that their destination is also imperial capital

Carla realized it.

Well after all it cannot considered as espionage on this prairie with good viewpoint like this

[Aniki, what should we do?]

[That's true, well it's not like they're only accepting virgin after all, Let's just give it to noble-sama after we have fun with her]

As the man who's called Aniki said that, those face which covered with sweat and dirt distorted ugly.

These guys is the so called Robber.

Even in this peaceful world there's still bunch of stupid nobles, calmly using all of their authority to forcefully stole girls.

Received the request of those stupid noble, in exchange of huge pay robber job is to take the girl to those noble.

They are the one who are former adventurers.

Failed in their quest and loses their trusts, received the expulsion punishment from the guild the so called ruined adventurers.

Though even if they're a adventurers who are loses their trust their physical power is slightly stronger than common people, thus if they're wanted to live decently then there is a lot of place that will give them job

Those guys, got taken in by the appeal of the so called robber work that's able to give them huge amount of gold without much hardship.

With just bringing one girl, they're able to get hold of money that for a commoner then they will be able to live in luxury and play around for about five years..... thus that's surely made them didn't want to work seriously.

Because of that, there's unexpectedly a lot of cases where the one who's failed in becoming an adventurer changed into robber.

As for the noble that had little girl preferences, or won't accepted if it's not a virgin or such, there's also the one who's pervert who's like exposure too, But these robbers is only take up the request from the noble who's accepted that it's OK as long it's beautiful.

Their aim is of course ---- so that they can also enjoy her too.

It's the matter of course that they able to do their best in the request since they can also enjoy it too.

This time also they're took the request from the noble that become their frequent customer, they're searched for their prey on Marutai prairie which had little monster, and it's also easy to run away from the large royal capital protection knight unit, For those guys to the beauty who's walking alone in the prairie, there's no way they wouldn't put their eyes on Carla.

They're hold their impatient feeling, then jumped out in front of Carla.

[What are you doin in this place? Ojou-san?]

The mans while smiled with vulgar smile started to talked to me.

----- really, you guys already watching me from some times ago right? they're is something that called as robber right ? ----- Ushin you bastard ! Didn't you said that this was a peaceful world ! How you call this a peaceful world if the first person that you met in other world is a robber ! ! !

[Oi oi oi, ,Aniki is talking to you you know, how about you said something eh?]

[That's true eh. How about you say something]

As I complained toward Unshin, the skinny man who's truly looked like MO○NE HUSBAND and a fatty that seems really love to eat onigiri started to spoke.

[Just now, I am planning to go to imperial capital, is this is the right way?]

For now, I tried to asked a question.

[Aaa, you're right]

As expected the man mutter with a grinning face.

[Is that so. Thank you very much ----- well then]

I didn't had any more business with them, also they're the really type of person that I wanted to associate with, I tried to slip away from the mans side.

However

----- Gah ! !

[Oi oi , wait. Did you think that we will let you pass for free?]

[That's true, take out the toll, the toll !]

[That's true]

Suddenly they're grabbed my shoulder and forcefully turned me toward the mans.

----- As I thought it's impossible eh but I didn't brought any money. I wonder if one gold is enough?

Luckily there's the gold that I got from Ushin as the example of the real thing.

Though since I still didn't understand the value of the for the gold(or the market price) thus I am worry about this but this is somehow will manage right ? or with such kind of feeling I prayed while asked.

[----- Aah ~ I didn't have anything except this one piece of gold, is it enough?]

[There's no way that's enough ! It's already well known that for Aniki at least you need three piece of gold you know]

[That's right]

It was no good

----- It's truly bothersome eh ~. Should I just beat them up? -----
No, that's not good I am right now is a frail young lady. For now, I somehow understand what will such girl said in this situation
.....

[Three pieces ! ? I didn't have that much you know ! ?]

I tried to said it with a voice that seems to be surprised. I thought it was pretty good act you know. I will received a starring actress award♪

Alas because of 【Smile of the devil】I can't snicker or even laugh.

Or rather, I felt subtly that my variation of expression is started to lost

This is maybe also the skill side effect ?

[Ehehehe , it can't be helped e~h ----- maybe we will take your body as the payment]

The man who're made the greatest disgusting smile as of now, with the template which wouldn't be able to surpass one imagination, it's to common that there's no bit of twist, they spit out the line which is had the strong smell of a low person.

----- To spoke the line just like what I thought to this extent is oppositely made me felt pity for them well, I still didn't intended to pay them though.

[----- eh ? I don't want to such a thing. Or rather that line is totally sound like a low man you know. With such kind of servant like smell made me oppositely felt pity for you okay How about you start to learn how big person is speaking?] (15)

For now I tried to spoke that.

Thereupon the men's face in front of me quickly become bright red and then

[Bastard, after we tried to tell you gently you become to get carried away !!! We will rape you and make you panting you know !!!]

Said that, the man unsheathed the sword on his hip.

----- Dear Ushin, the first people that I met suddenly become my enemy. This world is no peaceful at all you know !

Author note:

Her first battle in this world seems to ended up not with monster but with the robbers.

Do you come to understanding.

I tried to wrote a simple provocation.

The next chapter will be the first battle?

1/18 Revision Bishoujo (beautiful girl) -> Bijou (Beautiful woman)
Thank you very much to meecom-sama for pointing this out.

1/21 Revision 面度だなぁ〜→面倒だなぁ〜 (typo) Thank you very much to Luminel-sama.

-Robber's POV—

We were sure of our victory, while pointing our swords toward the girl in front of us.

All of us were ex-adventurers, plus I was a proud Level 20 warrior; there was no way we would lose against a girl who was at most, 20 years old.

Furthermore, our opponent was barehanded.

Thinking about all the pleasurable things that we would be doing after this, a delighted smile floated onto our faces.

I leered at the face of the girl who was supposed to be frozen with fright..

What the.....

That girl didn't even twitch, just inclined her doll-like face and looked back at me with those eyes that could stare into my soul.

Not good ! This person is somewhat different !

I don't know, perhaps it was my instinct as an ex-adventurer or my ability to perceive danger as a robber, but I knew that she was dangerous somehow.

Just when I was about to warn both of my henchmen

Swoosh ~ !

Splash !

The woman disappeared from my sight, and from Fatty's position behind me, I heard a splashing sound.

[Oi, what hap—]

When I turned to look at Fatty, I froze in disbelief at the scene before my eyes.

Is it perhaps around the chest area of fatty ? That woman remained in a pose as if she had just kicked, while Fatty.....

Only his lower half ...

[...Hah? ...eh?]

Bchsyuuuuuuuu!!!! Petchsaa!

Fwoosh !

Pachi!! Splash !

From the lower half of what used to be Fatty, some kind of warm red fluid sprouted and soaked me.

At the same time, Fatty's lower parts fell into a pool of red..... It was『blood』, and as the blood pooled, the woman once again disappeared from my sight.

[Oi! Brace yourself, skinn—] (16)

Just as I thought to give Skinny(SU* husband) a warning, when I looked at him, he looked at me too, but...

His neck turned and kept turning until it completed a full round.

[Hiiii!!...Oioioioioioi! What is this!?]

Because of this overwhelming scene, I ended up screaming without shame or even honor.

[What a noisy guy. You already decided to become a robber, so you should've already known what happens when you lose, right? For you to cry at this time is lame, you know...]

Normally, the calm, beautiful voice that came from behind me would charm most people, however, to me, it was an object of fear.

[...Then, sayonara]

Puchii!!!

An unpleasant sound that resounded at same time as the farewell voice of the girl.

As my head slowly drooped down, what I saw was the hand of the woman was my heart, which was slowly being extracted from the center of my chest.

The girl's hand which pierced my chest somehow didn't felt real, which confused me at the death's doorstep.

The reason for that was obvious.

Even disregarding the fact that her hand had just pierced straight through me, there wasn't even a single drop of blood on her hand. And.....

Haah!? Pierced? This—me? I, who raised my level until level 20, to the extent that I was about to be chosen as the hero candidate!?

From fright came understanding, and from understanding came pain.

For a brief moment, pain like I'd never felt before surged through my body, and my brain that was in turmoil because of what just happened suddenly started working, and I slowly processed what had just happened.

However, everything above only took a moment, and I lost hope instantly.

I, who understood the fact that there was no saving me, turned my face toward the girl. Ah, just as I thought. What greeted my dying face was..

The beautiful, the expressionless face of the girl which seemed like a work of art.

-Carla's POV-

've really done it, so this is the experience of the guilt of committing 『murder 』 for the first time that every Strongest-type of main character feels .It's really come eh....But the opponent is also doing this with his resolution after all. So it can't be helped, right?

Although it was slightly unexpected, for Carla, who came from modern Japan, she wasn't the slightest bit tormented by guilt from having killed someone.

[But, this body is absolutely overpowered, just like I thought after all.]

Even though at the start I just intended to make them surprised by showing them a sudden movement, but the SPD value of 500 was just too much.

I attempted to stop myself by lightly kicking the fatty's chest, but.....

[To think it became something like that...]

The last two were just the same.

I caught onto the skinny one's neck to stop myself, and as for the robber who was called Aniki, I just intended to lightly push him away.

[This won't become an obstacle in daily life, right? I hope...]

As she was muttering, Carla began to walk towards the imperial capital.

One hour after that, Carla safely emerged from the prairie, and arrived at the imperial capital.

Author note:

Here's a short and quick explanation.

It's her first battle. However, due to a background setting, our MC did not feel any guilt even after killing someone. (EN: I'M FEELING CHUNNI! I'M A KUUDERE TOO~ sees cat)

Well then, please treat me well too in the next chapter.

1/21 some typo fixed thanks to Ruminelute-sama

Oo-klan kingdom, Capital 『Klanklan』

At the capital of the Klan-continent's biggest country, the Oo-klan kingdom, there existed a royal castle.

The royal castle, located in the middle of the city, had a beautiful white outer wall known as the 『White shrine of peacefulness』. The royal palace had strong fortifications due to several defensive magic skills such as [Resist spells] and [Anti-skills], and for the sake of preserving it's beautiful appearance it was permanently applied with the magic [Purification]. Even though a thousand years had already passed since the castle had been built, the beauty from the olden days hadn't disappeared. In this day and age, it made one wonder about the capability of magicians of old.

The royal castle was situated right in the centre of the city, and was surrounded by the noble factions. They, in turn, were surrounded by the commoner faction.

All around the city, the ramparts were lifted shut, with the exception of the four directional gates.

The city was divided into 4 divisions; the commercial district at the northeast, the developmental district at the southwest, industrial district at the southeast, and residential district at the northwest.

The commercial district was just like its name; it was a district that specialized in trade business. It was also the same for the industrial district and residential district.

The development district was the birthplace of various human occupations. In fact, the entire district was filled with what looked like vocational schools.

This was the kind of metropolis that the capital of the 『Klanklan』 kingdom was.

At the west gate of the city, there was the lonely shadow of a single woman.

[Fuu~ , finally arrived]

Carla muttered in front of the majestic gates.

It took a total of 3 hours before she reached this place.

The sun which previously hung over her head had now shifted towards the west and would no doubt set in a few more hours.

-(First Person POV)-

For now, let's try to enter hmmm ?

[Stop ! You over there, Wait for a moment !]

Perhaps they thought I was a suspicious person due to the fact that I was standing there looking dumbstruck.

Even while slightly surprised because suddenly got called by someone, I turned my head and looked at the person who had called me.

Over there, there's a knight wearing silver armour on his body.

[If you wish to enter the imperial capital, you need to have a pass. Do you have a pass?]

The knight towered over me (his face is handsome tch ----) and asked me politely.

Pass? I have no such a thing, you know ? ----- Dear Unshin , what happened with [opportunism]?

However, since I couldn't keep silent like this either.....

[I just came out from my village, so I don't have any pass]

For now, I'm pretending to be someone who just came from from the countryside.

[What? So you didn't have it. In that case, I would ask if my lady would accompany me to the station to issue you a pass?]

The man said, before turning towards a building situated at the side of the gate.

I guess this can also be counted as [opportunism]?

Even as that thought went through my head, a separate thought surfaced, namely that disobeying him wouldn't bring any good situations, so I followed him quietly.

The inside of the station seemed to resemble most normal houses. There was a table for four, chairs, a fireplace for when it got cold, and a place to sleep. I sat down in the chair and began my interview with the knight.

[I'll ask you a few questions, so please answer them.... Ah , my name is Dick, the manager of the west gate.]

The knight in front of me..... 『Dick』said so. (17)

-(Dick's POV)-

[I'll ask you a few questions, so please answer them.... Ah , my name is Dick, the manager of the west gate.]

I casually told her this, while attempting to control my heart which was beating impossibly fast.

Today was supposed to be a routine day; stop people who want to pass the gate, check their passes, if they don't have one then issue them one.. But, today is different..

The person I stopped this time just a girl. Just like always, she didn't have a pass, which meant I invite her to the station to issue her a pass. However, as soon as I saw her, I realised one thing Beautiful.....

She was beautiful beyond belief, an overwhelming sight which simply could not be quantified as either pretty or cute. To give an example, this beauty was like the moon floating in the sky. Even if I want to hold it in my hand, it would be impossible. However, it is equally impossible to resist the urge of wanting her. Such was the contradiction borne after I saw her.

She was so beautiful, even the top actress I saw at the opera last time could not compare; the actress would be left looking like a dumb girl from the country.

A line was so hypocritical as to make even myself become stunned floated into my mind.

Threw everything that came in my mind to the woman in front of me, I really wanted to see her smile shyly.

Regrettably..I have to do my job seriously..however, she is so beautiful.

I must have made a black face then, for the woman opened her perfect mouth and asked: [... the question ?]

That voice, it contained a slight harshness.

At that moment, I realised something.

Her face hadn't changed a bit. However, the light, the atmosphere, the swirl of the air; everything was solely changed just to suit her beauty. Everything was affected; and somehow, even though I thought I just saw the most beautiful woman, she proceeded to capture my heart again by showing me an even more beautiful face.

Because of that overwhelming beauty, I didn't even remember feeling a shudder. (18)

[..What is the question! ?]

Ah, it must have been because there was no answer for so long that the woman became a little impatient.

[.. Ah ...Sorry, sorry. I was just fascinated by your beauty.]

It's not like I, who was known as the 'diligent playboy knight', didn't have anything to say to this woman, who possessed the ultimate beauty.

[There's no need for the flattery. Leaving that aside, what about the question for issuing the temporary pass?]

Really, even though I didn't intend to flatter her but it seems that this girl in front of me didn't see it as something like that.

[.. Ah, that's right, first is your name. So, what is your name ?]

Although I wanted to get closer to her in various ways ahem but first came my job..

I begun the interview while holding a great amount of ulterior motive.

-(POV change)-

[..Ah, that's right, first is your name. So, what is your name?]

Finally, the interview has begun for real. It seems as though I must keep an eye on this man...

I became cautious of [Dick].

Well, first of all because of his handsome looks he must be a playboy. He must be.

If it is just that, then maybe I could still see him as sincere knight.

But, for him to be able to naturally say such a line,

Isn't that confirming that he's a playboy bastard!!

Even while I was amazed at my first attempt at getting flirted with, Dick was still having fun with the interview.

In the middle of chatter, I wondered when I would be able to enter the imperial city, 『Carla』's adventure was still just beginning.

Author note:

Did you come to understanding?

He will appear in the next few chapters you know ~

Well then, please treat me well too at the next chapter.

Every day was just a bore. (19)

I, who lived inside the gilded cage known as nobility, hated the power dispute that happened everyday, the ball that degenerated to a place to show off one's power, I hated it all. Thus I became an adventurer.

My parents didn't oppose my decision, instead they felt relieved that the only existence that can snatch away their power away from them was leaving.

And then, I, who was an adventurer for several years, one day got chosen to be the king.

It seems that I was chosen solely due to the guidance of the god 『Klan』.

It's definitely quite ironic for someone like me who became an adventurer due to my hatred for authority, to become the one to hold the most authority in the entire kingdom. If God does really exist, I wonder if he's laughing at me from heaven right now.

After that, the tedious days continues onward.

Everyday, they come with flowery words, often standing in long lines to meet me. Because of my position, they often try to curry favor, in the hopes of getting close to me. On top of that, there was someone who even tried to offer their own daughter.

I hate women who try to curry favor.

I simply loathe that attitude; I can't understand what their thought concept was for doing so.

And thus, including the one who presented their daughter, I rejected all their offers.

At one point, when I was already exhausted from the daily meetings with rotten nobles, I was amazed with what a certain noble presented to me that day.

It was a simple offering of 『Bread』.

The 『Bread』 that was presented to me in the middle of my audience was carried to my waiting room and was laid out for me.

After a little hesitation, I decided to eat the bread, as I started to feel a little hungry. However..

[Is there anyone there?]

[Yes, I am right here. Is there anything wrong?]

Sebas the head butler silently appeared before me as he responded to my call.

[Ah, I'm feeling a bit peckish at the moment, and the bread was a gift, you see? I thinking about eating it, but you know..]

[Understood. We should test for poison before anything else. Please wait a moment.]

Though I don't mind eating without a poison test, Sebas once lectured me saying that it was too dangerous for a king to eat anything offered by nobles without tasting for poison first. And so, he has always prevented me from eating without doing so. Since that time, I have always called for him to do a poison test.

It pains my heart whenever the poison test is conducted; the person in charge of taste testing is a fifteen-year old girl.

A pang of guilt runs through me whenever this test happens. After all, there is always a chance that the girl could die.

[Then, try to eat it.]

Sebas said to the girl, as he presented the bread to her.

The girl received the bread with a grim face, and slowly put a morsel into her mouth.

..... o

...

..... o

I wonder, who was the first to realize that something weird is going on with the girl?

The girl slowly chewed on the piece of bread. After a little pause, her face started to brighten and she then proceeded to devour the bread vigorously.

[It would seem that there is no poison.. But what is the meaning of this?]

[I too, don't understand. Whatever it is, is it alright if I send the girl back now?]

[Yes. After all, the poison test was completed with no problems. Instead of any complications, she ate the bread with vigor, gazing at the other bread with desire, you know?]

[That's true. Well then, excuse me.]

After the girl finished eating her bread, she was dragged out by Sebas, still looking greedily at the other bread.

[That reaction made me really curious about the taste. Well then, let's try this out.]

Chomp After putting a piece of the bread into my mouth, I was caught off guard due to its taste.

[Woah! It's delicious, too delicious!!]

Upon that one bite, I immediately understood why the girl reacted that way First of all, it's 'soft'.

I always thought that bread comes out very stiff and hard, no matter how skilled one is at making it.

In fact, it was common to dip bread into soup to try and soften it up. It was so bad, that people only ate bread to decrease the size of their stomach, or when food is really lacking, and therefore needed to be consumed in small amounts.

Furthermore, while bread is usually as hard as iron when cold, this bread is still soft even though it was clearly made a while ago. This changed my perception of the bread that I have eaten all my life.

And then, it's 'faintly sweet'.

Even though it's just plain old bread, it contains a hint of sweetness.

Although there is no need to chew on the bread so much because of its softness, I still chewed on it solely due to the sensation I was feeling. I was able to feel the flavor deepening every time I chew on it.

No matter how you look at it, this bread differed from the other bread, with just the wheat flavor, regardless of how you grew it.

This novel experience that spread inside my mouth, spoiled me to the extent that the bread I ate till now tastes like dirt.

[Who was the one that made this bread! I want him to come to the castle!]

[W-What is wrong, your highness!?!]

The nearby guards panickingly rushed over due to my shouting.

[Call over the noble who gave me this bread! Immediately!]

[Yes! Certainly!]

As they responded, I looked over the guards while mopping up the rest of this delicious treat.

The audience hall was covered with a gloomy atmosphere.

I questioned the noble who presented me the bread, and discovered that it wasn't one of his servants who made it, but was rather purchased off a merchant.

The merchant did not reveal how they were acquired, so even the nobles didn't know where the bread came from.

All they knew, was that the bread was made inside the country.

[What should I do..]

[It's just bread, right? Is this something that needs to be worried about so much?]

The prime minister said that after hearing my muttering.

[Don't say such stupid things! I will never eat any other bread after eating that one! I have to find who made this, or else..]

The strangest order in the history of the kingdom was issued at the time. It was even an imperial command under the name of the king, at that.

[What!? Did you just say that you found the creator!? Who is it!? Quickly, tell me!]

[My king, please calm yourself.]

[Who can calm himself in this situation! The creator of 'that' bread shows up now, after a half of month had passed, with nothing turning up!? It's gotten up to the point where I will personally go to the person's place, and invite them to work in my castle, you know!]

The prime minister was confused because of my excitement.

[Leave that thing alone. Just quickly tell me about it!]

[Well then, while it may be insolent of me to do so, but let me say the report.]

The knight leader said that as he stepped forward.

[The name of the one who made the bread is 『Carla – Grace 』. A woman who manages the 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』 Inn all by herself, which has recently become popularly discussed.]

(Author's Note)

Yup, something like that happened. (EN: Of course, I ruined it :P) I think everyone understands whose inner monologue, this is.

I will continue this idle talk a little bit more, so please treat me well.

Volume 3 :: Chapter 4

It progressed beyond my imagination

[——— then, next one is the last question]

Oo-klan kingdom, Capital City Klahklan, west gate guard station.

In that station, me(ore),.....no, I(watashi), Carla Grace was being interviewed by Dick the Knight.

[——— Then, the next one is the last question]

Or so Dick said.

— It was long. It was really long.

After I was dragged into the guard station, although I was receiving questions for the sake of issuing a temporary pass, the subject of the questions were really wide.

They started from the name, age, sex (you can see it clearly right!?), hobby (is this a marriage interview!?) and such; there were various questions.

Since I didn't hide anything, we talked a bit just like that, but would it be fine if things dragged on like this?

—— Well then, I wonder what the next question is?

[——— You, what is the reason you came into this country?]

Ah. This is quite troubling. There was nothing that I particularly wanted to do.....

.....

.....

—— Let's just go with the standard reincarnation-type novel noble path

[——— I've been thinking about starting an inn]

Eh? It didn't have anything to do with the noble path? Don't say such stupid things! ! Isn't the cuisine in this kind of other-world quite primitive?! The main characters always try to improve the world through their strenuous efforts! — But for a young main character, they can't do anything for that cause..... thus, in the end, they sell their technology to their village cafeteria or the bakery in the city to improve the quality of meals around the world.

It is a magnificent heartwarming story.

However, since they have to sell their technology, they wouldn't be able to monopolize it! !

" " " Isn't this is a grave situation?! " " "

They have to sell their technology since they are unable to use it. Maybe this is because they are young ——— if it's like that, then I, who is already an adult, will become the source myself! !

If this is not an noble path, then what is ?! I will become the God of Meals in this world! ! !

— Well. The other reason is that most inn mistresses are kind, right~?

While I thought that in my head while not really understanding to whom I was explaining to.....

[——— An inn huh? That's nice. But for that, you need the approval from the king, and for the approval of citizenship you have to become at least a B-Rank adventurer, you know? You aren't one, right?]

[——— how do you know?]

[..... That is because you didn't bring any pass. If you were a citizen then you would have shown a citizen's pass and if you were an adventurer you would show a guild-card which would count as a pass.]

Having spoken to this point, Dick removed a splinter-like card that was connected to a chain from under the robes of his armor.

[This is the citizen's card. The storage medium that holds information about your name and your job in it. The reason that this is made splinter-like, is so that it is easy to differentiate that it is actually some kind of magic metal. For the guild card, the difference in ranks will make it change in color to become more metallic. If you look at the card and the card is splinter-like, then it's a citizen's card; if it's metallic then you can tell that it is a guild card. It's quite an excellent thing, you know]

The technology in this world has progressed more than expected!

[Well, if you want to set up an inn as quick as possible then you should probably go to the adventurer's guild and become a B-Rank adventurer as soon as possible. But, you have to be careful; the adventurer's guild is a gathering of hoodlums. Well, the ones who have higher ranks and have already completed various jobs can be considered veterans and so they've learnt quite a bit of manners, but the ones who are in the low rank are the same as hoodlums ... I don't know what they will do to a beautiful woman like you, you know?]

As the conversation flowed, he smoothly slid in some lines to make me feel better. Should I say, as expected of a playboy?

What? So he really is aiming for me ? Carla had some random thoughts as she raised her vigilance while looking at Dick's handsome face. (EN: Temporarily switching out to third person for a line. A LINE GOD DAMMIT) [Is that so? Thank you]

[Ah and just a little more; if you want to go to the adventurer's guild, then from the castle gate, you need to follow the main street that goes straight towards the royal castle, make one round detour on the castle walls, then follow the northeast path. It's the biggest building after you come out from the noble's block, so you'll find it immediately — It'll become a building that you have to go when you have some business whether you become an adventurer after this or not. There's no loss in remembering the way now.]

——- Is his strange gentle-manliness an effect of his [Opportunism]?

(No no, he clearly has ulterior motives, right~) – Unshin I felt that I could suddenly hear the supreme god's voice from somewhere.

[———- Oh yeah, this is the temporary pass, don't lose it okay?]

[..... ! ? Just now, from where did you take it from?]

The thing that Dick presented to me was a pure white plate. However, until now, that thing had not been there; it just suddenly appeared from nowhere.

It may have been that my surprised face was charming for him (it was just my eyebrow raised) by his handsome face made a broad smile and begun to explain.

[This table may look like a normal table but it's actually a magic item, you know? By inserting the paper that is written with information, it can issuing a temporary pass. Quite the excellent thing, right?]

[Indeed, it is.....say, what happens if I lose the pass?]

—- It really is advanced technology, eh? But with this, reissuing seems easy too, doesn't it?.

[—-..... Forced labor equaling four thousand pieces of gold and one piece silver coin for reissuing.]

[—————-..... Isn't the punishment too harsh?]

—— Scaryyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyy !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! The punishment is too scary !!!

—— 怖えええええええええ ! ! ! ! ! ! ! 罰が怖すぎる ! ! !

What do you mean by working hard for years until those rascals turn into young, refreshing gentlemen? In the first place, those rascals won't listen to you for three or four years, right??!

[Well, you don't need to worry that much. If you get [[Auto-return]] magic applied to your card as a supplement when you become a citizen or adventurer, then automatically it'll come back to your hand, you know?]

——— What? So there's actually a way people won't lose it after all.

[— I understand, I won't lose it . For now, can I go already?]

[Ah, it's alright. — Aside than that, what about your inn for tonight?]

[What are you planning when you ask me a question like that?]

[What, you just arrived at this city, right? I just wanted to tell you about my recommended inns.]

[— Well, it's alright. Tell me that so called recommended inn.]

I proceeded to listen to Dick while showing my wariness frankly.

[Don't be so wary. I'm not going to recommend you a shady place. If you are planning to start an inn.....it would be better to go the Garden Of Happiness Pavilion. That's forward east three buildings after the guild building.]

Garden Of Happiness Pavilion , eh?..... what an remarkable name.

[I understand. Thanks. Well then.....]

As I spoke, I rose and left.

[The first place I must go is the guild, eh? For now, I must quickly become a B-Rank adventurer and start the inn.]

This would later on become a legend, the vigorous start of the adventures of [Carla – Grace].

Afterwards, Carla would learn about it.

— The fact that her statement become a flag.....

Author note:

2/3. I guess this is a form of mini mass release? There was supposed to be 5 but ;_ my poor arms. I guess you only want chapters not my feelings so here it is xD

Did you come to understand something like this?

It become something like an explanation chapter again.....

What should I do, I wonder.....

Well, please treat me well too, in the next chapter.

Volume 3 :: Chapter 5

Do you want to become an adventurer?

[—- Can you show me your citizen's card or the temporary pass, and the certificate of passing the ability aptitude test?]

After I was told that by the guild receptionist, I, 『Carla Grace』, was bewildered.

This is the kingdom's guild main headquarters.

After I bid farewell to Dick, I managed to arrive at this place. However, I was completely lost for words.....

The guild main headquarters.

Over here, it did not look like a tavern where men challenged wild monsters; instead, there were orderly formed lines and receptionists greeting everyone politely.

They had a waiting tag number for the queue and the queue number was managed by magic.

Many of the adventurers were gathered close to the wall. Was it to confirm the quests?

In regards to accepting quests, it was not a system where you went up and grabbed any quests from a board, but instead waited at a queue and acquired a quest which was thought suitable for you. The quests were divided by rank and level.

Although I didn't quite get that sophisticated system.....

This spectacle brought quite the shock to me as the scene I saw was quite different from the one I expected.

[..... Awesome. Even though I imagined this place to be something that looked like a bar or something.....]

I unconsciously thought to myself out loud. (20)

[But truly, there are many people here.....it will probably take some time.....hmm?]

When I looked closely, there was a counter which didn't have anyone in front of it.

— When I looked about....yep, this was the only place with no one in front of it. There must be something bad about it, right?.....

[Is this place open?]

I went to the counter, and called over to whoever was inside.

[Ye~~s . It's ope~n]

An absurdly slow voice replied.

Sure enough, the one who came from inside was the receptionist(?).

Her unkempt hair was extremely messy, and because of its length, it also covered her eyes completely.

The clothes she wore were also not the standard, neat suits of the other receptionists, but instead a long baggy pajamas-looking-like thing.

It was an outer appearance that gave quite the untidy impression.

[Aah my name is Carla, I want to register as a adventurer.....]

[Ye~s . Adventure~r registeri~ng rig~th]

[Ah, please.]

[Ye~s , well the~n adventu~]

[Ah, also

— you don't need to act like that with the slow way of talking you know?]

In an instant, the atmosphere froze.

However, I could not leave it as it was and avert my eyes. This woman was obviously acting like a untidy and unkempt person with her slow way of talking.

The proof of that as that even though she talked slowly, when she spoke I feel her eyes staring out at me, studying me.

..... Or rather, it is scary. I want her to stop.

[.....]

[.....]

[— How did you realize it?] (21)

The aura this receptionist was emitting had completely changed.

[How did I realise it.....I'm just good at seeing through people, I suppose.]

That much was true. As I used to work in a company as a full-fledged employee, I learned to read the emotions and auras of people to some extent. (EN: Can relate.) From the intuition I developed, I could tell her actions were to unnatural.

As for the woman in question, who had had her act uncovered.....

[..... pfft, ahahahahahahaha!— You're quite interesting, eh! It's the first time that there's been a person that is able to see through my disguise the first time we meet you know.

Also, to say such a line 『I'm good at seeing through people's expressions』with an expressionless face

Pff fufu, are you trying to kill me from laughter?]

She started to laugh in a magnificent voice.

—— I wonder, what is weird about it?

Although I don't understand, it seems there is something about my expressionless-ness.

Even though it was a side effect of the skill, it seemed it was a plus.

[I quite like you! My name is Ririka-chan! I may not look it, but I used to be an ex-A class adventurer you know. But now, I'm an receptionist onee-san♪

You, you said your name was Carla, right? Well, let's get along together after this alright☆]

Her rank as an A-rank adventurer, wasn't that very high? But her appearance.....

Ririkashe is a person that I can't make light of.....

[—— Well then, let's do the work seriously.....

Good day and welcome, to the adventurer guild.]

As she said this, 『Ririka』, changed into her serious mode.

Her hair which had been wild and messy until a while ago now looked smooth and silky like she had just come out of a salon. In addition, she had changed into a clean suit that resembled the other receptionists..

When she was wearing the appropriate clothing she looked like a reliable receptionist due to her beautiful face. However, she wasn't wearing any glasses.....

—— Oi Oi Oi! Is it magic or something? Your speed when it comes to changing is too quick you know?!

As I gave such a retort in my head, Ririka said again.

[Well then, you said that you came here to register as an adventurer, right? Then.....

—— Can you show me your citizen's card or the temporary pass, as well as the certificate of passing the ability aptitude test?]

———— ha?

[..... What is that thing?]

[Ah, as I thought, you didn't bring it.

Let me explain it. You are already aware that our king is an ex-adventurer, right? As well as the fact that the king was also chosen by the jewel.....

Actually, in this country, it is common for kings in the past history of this kingdom to be adventurers selected by the jewel.

Because of this fact, lots of noblemen and people who lose their jobs want to become adventurers. However, because many of these people are unskilled or do not have powerful retainers to help them, they often die while on missions.

Because of this, we from the adventurer's guild reached out and joined hands with the human resource part of the city to ensure that only those who had the bare minimum qualifications could try to become adventurers.

That's the "ability aptitude test".

The test itself is something simple, but to acquiring the qualifications to sit the test, you need to attend the human resource development school so that you may learn the required knowledge and skill.

As for the adventurer's registration, unless you bring the certificate after you pass the test, we will not do the registration.]

Ririka said it in one go.

[Wha!? I didn't hear such thing, you know!?!]

As she looked at my surprised self, Ririka's aura changed from that of a reliable receptionist to a gentle neighborhood onee-san.

[Carla-chan, which gate did you take to come here? Perhaps, it's the west gate right?]

[How did you know!?!]

Ririka spoke with an assured confidence —— is this girl is an esper!? As I thought that and started to tremble, [The west gate under Dick's jurisdiction, right? Although that guy is called a『diligent playboy knight』, he is just a playboy bastard, you know? When he sees a beauty, he would be inclined to use his inborn power to hit on the girl, but would conveniently forget to include many important details in his explanations.]

『Really he is really stupid 』or so I heard Ririka mutter.

[So that's it, Ririka is in love with Dick, heh?]

I said it frankly.

[I-I-It's not like I think about him alright]

—— Yes Yes, tsundere-ty.

[Fo Fo-Fo, For now, you need the certificate, okay! Quickly go and enroll in the human resource development school!]

[..... Is there really a need to enroll ?]

This was something that I had to ask. After all, if it was just learning a bit of skill, I could do it easily. However, to the me who was hoping....

[Well, since you need to at least study at that place for one year.....

I guess it is unfortunate. However, it should be the perfect time for enrollment now and if you go now you should be able to be enrolled straight away.

If you like, I can give you a letter of recommendation from the guild. This will ensure that you will not need to pay the school fees.

Study hard, okay ~]

It could have been that Ririka was making fun of me, but right then, she showed me her best smile yet.

Even though I was dumbfounded, I still received the letter of introduction and left the guild.

Dear honorable mother-sama,

After coming to another world, it seems that there still much I need to learn.

Please take care of your body.

Sincerely,

『Carla – Grace』, whose 20 year old school life is about to begin.

At that time,

『Ahahahahaha ! As I thought 『○Ki』is really funny eh~

Isn't Yuu○rou(勇○郎) too strong? Let's try to make the next otherworlder who comes out to be three times stronger than Yuu○rou kay~

『Eh Ten-chan what is with that nice smile? Eh, isn't this somehow deja vu-ish?

That day, the abusive voice of a certain angel came down from heaven in the the form of thunder.

Author note:

Did you guys understand?

If you wanted to become an adventurer you had to change jobs to pretend to be a student.

Even though our MC is a power-type, there aren't much battles. Instead, I'm aiming for a warm story.

At present, I receive a lot of advice from the 'impressions'.

Since i'll making the best of it from the ones that I can handle, please treat me well.

Please treat me well too in the next chapter.

1/19 – adding a bit the reason creating the ability aptitude test.

I post the idle talk to have continuity.

it's blessing to me if you have fun reading this.

well then

[So it's here.....this place is quite gloomy, eh?]

That was the impression that I received standing in front of the inn known as『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』.

Since it was an inn that recently became famous, I had expected it to be of similar scale to the『Delight Garden Pavilion』inn.

The inn was not situated on the main road, nor did it look like it was overflowing with customers.

There was a signboard placed in front of the inn for formality, but with so little people walking about here, no one would notice this place or the sign.

Is this really the inn which has become a hot topic around here?

[Well, whatever. The person who made the bread must be in here, so I wonder if they are willing to work for me in the castle?]

As I said that, I entered the inn.

— Cling cling

A bell gently clinked as the door opened.

[Welcome to the 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』!]

I was welcomed by an extremely beautiful woman.

As I looked at the girl, I sort of understood why the inn had become a hot topic recently.

The beautiful woman's facial expression did not change even though there was a customer. Did she really want to welcome me like that?

[I wonder if I should stay here? It might be a little troublesome since the inn has become a hot topic recently...]

Actually, I wanted to begin discussions with her to employ her into the castle straight away, but I continued to conceal my identity for a bit more.

[I'm sorry, but the guest rooms are full today. But if it is his highness, there should a spare room in the castle, no?] – (22)

[.....what? I was already exposed?]

[When I opened the inn, I recall I had to ask you for permission first, although it seems his highness was too busy to remember me. What is his highness here for today?]

While being slightly angry at Carla for her slight sarcasm, I told her the reason I had come.

[Well then, I'll go right to the point. I want you to [I decline] (23) I was still in the middle of talking, you know.]

[I already grasped the gist of it with just that. It should be, perhaps, "Please go to the castle and make bread there!" , or something like that right?]

[! hoooh, how do you know?]

I was curious how she able to foresee the part that I wanted her to make bread, so I asked her.

[... ... there's no contract between me and his highness. Because of that, I cannot think any reason for me to get called to the castle by his highness.

However, those customers who became regulars recently kept asking about my bread, so I inquired why.

I quickly learnt that the bread had been sold to some noble.

And so as I tried to learn about it more, I was told by the merchant that the bread had been taken and given to the king as a presenting article to the castle by that noble.

— I myself understand that the bread that I make is different from common bread, and I will not tell anyone else the way to make it.

I think that the only reason why people are coming is because my food tastes better than the food out there already.

And so, this, this should be the reason why his highness has come, I think.]

That girl said all of that in one breath.

[hooohamazing.

It's amazing how you can get to such a conclusion with just those words.

Well then, I'll say it again.....

Mistress of 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe 』Carla-Grace., Will you work in the castle and make bread for me?] (EN: Arrogant Bastard xD)。

.....。

[I refuse]

[..... why ?]

[There are customers in this inn after all, and there are also customers that already reserved a place and are looking forward to it too.

It will be troublesome for those people who have already come here, especially if I am the only one who is working and I leave.

And so, I am very sorry, but I cannot respond to his highness's demand.

Also, if his highness just wants to eat bread, as long his highness comes to this inn, I will prepare as many as his highness likes, you know?]

I got completely rejected.

Well, there are plenty of other days to do this, so I shall give up for now.

[Will I still get food even if I don't stay at this inn?]

This is the only matter that I have to make sure of.

[Well, it's not like i can prepare it everytime, but at noon and sometimes during the evening I also open an eatery -like place.]

[If that is so, then tomorrow noon I will come again. Until then, please think again about your answer.]

[No, I think no matter how much time has passed my answer will not change]

[Well, maybe you will change more easily than expected you know?]

Leaving behind a half-joking smile, I left the inn.

In the end, Carla still rejected working at the castle.

However, there's also a change that happened.

[Welcome, Kail.

Will you eat your lunch here again?]

[That's of course, right? The meals that Carla make are delicious after all. Yep, marry me]

Firstly, I always come to this inn in the noon and stay for a moment.

Secondly, I always eat my lunch at this inn.

Thirdly, Carla calls me by my name, and we are able to talk casually.

Fourth, I called Carla by name.

Finally, there was a change in my mental state.

[Thank you. I am honestly happy that you praised my skill at cooking. But, I still won't marry you, okay~]

This conversation has already become a daily thing.

I had truly fallen in love with her. It was not something like a political marriage or a rite-of-passage, it was genuine.

Carla.

There's no lie in her beauty.

There's no such mask as a thick make-up.

There's no one side where she scorns other people.

I understand that she is truly beautiful woman.

It's not like I have no interest at all in woman by nature.

It's just, those toady women who always make that oppressive attitudes except in front of their companions.

That kind of thing is normal among the noble.

And thus I came to hate women.

I want to normally love someone, I want to date a woman in an equal relationship without minding our social status. Of course I would have such a mindset.

It just can't be helped if I opened my heart toward Carla right?

[What are you going to make today? Is it going to be honey-coated fried bread?]

Well, my marriage proposal always gets rejected though.

[I wonder if i should make something different today?]

[Well, I am fine with whatever you make, you know?]

I wonder if someday she will really come to my house and cook a meal just for me?

Even now, everyday I am full of motivation.

I will not give up you know, Carla !

Author note:

Here is a slight explanation,

Since Carla is also a human, she also have negative part about her.
(TL : the fact that she wanted to become girl is one of that negative thing i think]

However, since she didn't have that jealousy towards another person's beauty, her negative part didn't appeared in Kail's eyes.

He's a king that has bad eyes as well as being quite pure hearted right~

Will there any change in Kail and Carla's relationship?

Please treat me well too in the next chapter~

『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』 Inn.

A lone inn that stood silently in the commerce district of the royal capital Khanklan.

A place which was separated from the commerce district's main street; an area which was quite far from the clatter of the city, was at present, receiving the attention of the world for a single matter.

The inn was quiet even when it was the peak of business hours and was tinged with its usual calmness. The lone shadow of a man could be seen heading towards the inn.

A beautiful girl stood deep in thought at the counter.

(..... Really, a lot of things have happened, haven't they ~)

A trip to another world, becoming a student, and also becoming an adventurer. I really must thank Unshin.

The mistress of this inn who gave her gratitude toward Unshin, who was not there, was 『Carla Grace』.

Her calm noon came to an abrupt end because of the appearance of one man.

—— BAM !

[Carla, I've come ~ . Please make me the dearest imperial dream! (read: omurice) Also, please become my wife!]

[Welcome, Kail I'll make that order right away, but I'll not become your wife, okay? Also, please don't break the door ~]

Entering the inn with a vigour that would normally have caused the door to break, the man approached Carla.

Although there might have been some who already realized after hearing the name of the man, combined with his green hair, but he was in fact –

The Oo-klan kingdom king, [Kail – Ooklan], himself.

He had been chosen as king at the age of 18, and had held the seat of power for 8 years, making him now 26 years old.

After he was chosen as king, many of the nobles sent in their daughter through every means so that she could marry Kail and become the queen, but he did not even bat an eyelid to wards these matters and even became infamous as a gay king with the lack of any women around him. However, after meeting Carla, his character completely turned around a 180 degrees.

[Oh, sorry sorry. Since I always come here everyday thinking that I finally have a little bit of chance you know]

Contrarily to his vigorous entrance, Kail closed the door softly while muttering.

Yes, he visited Carla's inn everyday.

It was not like Kail himself did not have any interest in women. However, every time he attended banquets as the son of a noble, he hated the way that women would scorn each other over beauty-related matters.

No matter how beautifully they dressed themselves.....no, it was because they dressed up so beautifully that the ugly part within them was revealed.

Because of that, no matter how beautifully dressed a woman appeared to be in front of him, he would not care for them.

In fact, when he first met Carla, he felt the same way.

[That's impossible, right?..... Yup, it's done! The dearest imperial dream(omurice) has appeared! Eat it quickly, then go back to do your governor business.]

The reason that the sole man who didn't respond to Carla's beauty (or rather it would be better to say that he indeed reacted but was reluctant to see the filthy part inside) came everyday to propose to Carla was due to a really simple reason. That was.....

It's none other than the food that Carla made was absolutely delicious.

[Ou. No matter when I see it, it always looks delicious, eh?]

The first time Kail had a taste of Carla's cuisine was from the bread that some noble presented to him.

It was different to the bread he had eaten up to then; it was soft, fluffy and squishy. Even though it had already turned cold, the bread didn't even become hard. That bread made Kail captivated by it.

He immediately called for the servant who had presented the bread to him, but quickly realised it was not that servant who had created the bread. For Kail who could not forget the taste of that soft and fluffy bread, he searched thoroughly for the one who made it and thus he arrived at Carla's inn.

[There's no need for flattery, so just eat quickly. The afternoon break already ended, right? Or perhaps you're just free?]

Kail acted fast after he knew that Carla was the one who had made that bread. He went directly to her inn, and started to negotiate with Carla.

At first, Kail asked her to work at the castle as a chef over there, but he gradually had his heart completely grasped by Carla's natural beauty and her ability to cook.

Carla had by no means rejected his offer to work at the castle (or didn't mean to anyway), but....

[I understand. So you didn't want to work at the castle. Then I'll give up for that then , please marry me! Or rather, let's get married!!]

.....and that was it.

Carla had truly and completely captured Kail's stomach.

Even though he had been rejected by Carla so flippantly [I will not give up you know ~] he always left this kind of parting words, and thus he always appeared everyday and proposed to Carla was he really that free ?

[foi fio foi. The he ho hay hi (Oi oi oi, there's no way I)

[Please talk after you properly swallow it ~] (24)

..... Gulphave free time, right?]

Although I didn't understand what he said in the first half of his sentence, I think my guess hit the mark.

[I always slip out from the castle just to eat lunch at this place, you know? Can't you show a bit of sympathy to me? ~]

This is our usual conversation.

[I am grateful for that, but I won't become your wife okay?]

Today, the king lost in an honorable defeat

Would there be a day that Carla would be united with the king....?

Is this alright?

Author note:

From here, the [OP Inn] will properly start it's "Inn" part of the story.

Although I think there would be a lot of people who would be shocked at the sudden time leap,

1. I want to quickly write about daily life at the inn.
2. I the author thought to write something spin off-ish like story telling the school life part.

or because such kind of reason, I quickly started to write about the inn.

I'm very sorry towards everybody who has been expecting the school part.

Since I'll also properly write about the school part as extra stories, please treat me well at that time.

Also, I have decided to call this series [OP Inn] from now on. (Op inn) if there's any other better nickname, i look forward to it.

1/26 some typo fixed, thanks to garam masala-sama

◆1/27 updating some part of afterword.

—- cling cling

[— Welcome to the 『 Drago ...]

Kail had returned to the imperial castle due to state business, and since all of the other guest were out to sight-see and such, the『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』that was supposed to be quiet until night time suddenly rang with the sound of the bell, signaling a new customer.

Carla, who was in the kitchen preparing for night time, tried her best to express her courtesy and welcome the guest while still being expressionless, but.....

A girl with really suspicious clothing looked around restlessly inside the counter.

.....

—- Grasp !

[Unyoo ! Painfuuull ~ ! Leet mee goooo !]

Carla quickly and silently approached. With a single hand, she covered the girl's mouth with a cloth, while grabbing the scruff of the girl's collar and lifting her up to Carla's head-height with her other. (25)

And of course, it would have been obvious for the girl to feel pain.

She had been grabbed by Carla's thousand-men's worth of arm strength. It felt like her backbone would make a creaking sound any time soon.

—- Crack crack!

[Unyowaah! It'll break! It'll break! Carla-san, I said I'm sorry!!!]

.....Correction, it really did start making creaking sounds.

Due to the pain, which was too much for the girl, as expected, she gave up.

That girl started to apologize to Carla with great vigor, clearly showing she was Carla's friend.

[A-N-NA~ CHA-N~, like I've already said, it's okay if you come to play, but please stop with that spy-like appearance !]

Carla said it with an unusually angry tone.

[After all, you know There absolutely has to be a secret here, right?]

[Even if you say it so cutely, anything forbidden is forbidden.]

The girl called Anna puffed her cheeks as she sat on the counter.

She was also the daughter of the owner of one of the greatest inns in town, the『 Delight Garden Pavilion 』. She was also a hard worker who constantly thought of how to make『 Delight Garden Pavilion 』 become more prosperous in the future.

And so, it couldn't be helped that she became curious about Carla's newcomer inn, which had become a hot topic recently.

Honestly speaking, the『 Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe 』 and the『 Delight Garden Pavilion 』 were greatly different as inns.

The『 Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』was a store which had an appearance of an inn with a bar in a small town that often came out in games, and could only lodge a maximum of 8 groups.

In contrast, the『 Delight Garden Pavilion 』was like a high class resort hotel with a luxuriously-built structure and an extravagant number of rooms. In fact, it would not have been a shame to call those rooms suite rooms.

On top of that, they had developed proper segregation that could accommodate both nobles and commoners without any troubles.

Even though there was such a massive difference between the two inns, Anna had felt there was some sort of danger from Carla's inn, and often attempted to conduct reconnaissance on Carla's inn.

And because of that, Carla often met her.

Although almost all of them were Carla catching Anna while she was spying.

[So, what is your business here today? Would you like a drink?]

[I think that today is finally the day where I can dig up and expose the secret of this inn's popularity, ahaha.....]

—— Crack !!!

It felt like the sound of the air freezing over.

[.... dig up and expose the secret of this inn's popularity? What are you talking about, I wonder?]

Carla asked slowly, while a dark shadow making a "gogogogogo" sound appeared behind her. (26)

Even though Carla was supposed to be expressionless, the girl had seen a small glimpse of her anger.

The apple in Carla's hand had already lost its original shape.

—— But, it still hadn't completely been crushed.

[Jo-Jo-It's a joke, you know? A joke.....ahahahaha..... te-tea, can I have a glass of green tea?]

Feeling fear just from looking at the deformed apple, Anna nervously asked.

She thought that she should just order a cup of green tea for a moment, but Carla's anger had completely vanished.

[Green tea, right? Please wait a moment ~]

Since then, the『Dragon's Emperor Mistletoe』had a calm aura different from its usual calmness.

[As I thought, the green tea that Carla brews is delicious haa~... Will you move to the inn in my house?]

(27)

[Unfortunately, I doubt I can maintain my mental fortitude with such a big inn. This place already suits me. Furthermore, if you have an employee without any courtesy like myself, your sales will only go down, you know?]

(Carla-san is quite ignorant about her own appearance after all ~

Even though right now in the street, they are placing a bet on who Carla-san will show her affection to. Kuu-dere? I didn't quite understand what that means, but I felt like the old-men in the city were having such conversations. A~~h, even though we would accept with open hands if such a beauty wanted to work at our place.....Maybe I should give her an invitation again sometime?)

Author note: There's this and that kind of talk happening.

suddenly a new character appeared.

if it's grow up more than this will I able to handle it properly?

i'm quite worried

please treat me well to in the next chapter.

The daily life of the inn started frighteningly early.

When I first arrived in this world, I hadn't considered such a thing properly. I was only concerned with peacefully setting up that thing known as an 'inn'.

Maybe I had considered things too simply, but I realised this afterwards.

Establishing an inn itself is not something that's really complicated.

After I was able to become a B-rank adventurer, I was also able to get the permission to set up my inn from the king surprisingly easily. (Explanation: the king didn't have any interest in Carla and thus he wanted to end their meeting at that time as fast as possible).

Although it was a place that was slightly distanced from the commercial district as well as the main road, I was able to receive the inn as it was from an old couple who had run it before. Well, that couple recently hurt their backs and were planning to close down the inn.

However, on that occasion, they met me, and instead of shutting down that place that was full of memories for them, they decided to give it to me.

【Opportunism】? That's right, eh? It's come after a long time.

.... Well because of this and that, I, who was able to acquire a place to establish the inn easily, tried to start the inn as it was; however, it's not like the customers would come as easy as that.

Since the old couple had run this inn, the『Delight Garden Pavilion』inn had already been famous. As such, not many customers would come easily.

..... It's not like I hated『Delight Garden Pavilion』, or even blamed that inn.

The customers that could not get a room in 『Delight Garden Pavilion』flowed to other inns, and for those customers who were yet again unable to acquire a room, came to my newly-opened inn.

At that time, because I did not have many customers, I wasn't really busy, and at the most would have friends from my adventuring days over and causing a ruckus.

However, after they (the customers and my friends) stayed at my inn, even once, they would understand the quality of service in my inn.

By chance, my first customer was a merchant.

It seemed that he really enjoyed the taste of my cooking, and also praised the calm atmosphere of the inn, saying that he would come and stay here the next time he came to the kingdom.

Those words were not a lie; every time the merchant came here, he would stay at my inn without a doubt.

From a certain point of view, that merchant was the one who saved this inn.

For example, there was that time where he brought his merchant friend and his family over to stay.

Whenever that merchant (the first one) came to peddle his goods in the kingdom, he would just pass by the 『Delight Garden Pavilion』 and disappear elsewhere, appearing with a great mood the next morning. Thus, his friend would ask him about it each time they met.

When his friend pressed him for an answer, the merchant answered that he had been staying at an inn called the 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』, which his friend had never heard about before.

Is that a famous place? When his friend pressed even more for further detail, the merchant only answered with an ambiguous reply, making him irritated. As such, the friend asked the merchant to take him along to go the inn, apparently.

Of course, I didn't reject them; rather, there was no reason to reject another customer.

I welcomed my customer, showing my utmost courtesy (expressionless).

The merchant, his friend and his friend's family became the turning point of the inn.

There are a lot of cases where a merchant's work will involve handling information. From information with high credibility, to information like baseless rumors, they hold a wide range of information. People often come and seek this information.

One day, in a certain area, there was a time when the hot topic amongst merchants was the 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』.

The merchant (28) constantly said things like, the 『Inn where a goddess resides』, 『Inn where you can eat the meal of the heavens』 and so on. However, no matter how one looked at it, it could not be taken seriously.

Although it was the customers who heard the rumor from the merchant, knowing that the information came from a merchant made them assume that only half the story was true.

In response to their criticism, what the merchant took out was a piece of 『bread』. The merchant described it as 【Heaven's bread】. A housewife who still doubted him ate the bread that the merchant took out with full confidence. In the end, she almost fainted due to the bread's deliciousness. Of course, the people around her also could not help but become curious about the flavour of the bread, but she quickly devoured the remaining piece of bread.

With this, everyone believed that the 『Heaven's Food』part of the merchant's statement was true. If that was so, then the other rumour, 『The inn where the Goddess resides』, would also have credibility.

The merchant's customers' expectations swelled.

However, the merchant only leaked that much information on the inn. Where the inn was located, how to get there, and even information on the『Goddess』was kept hidden.

“The merchant said 『The Goddess's Inn』exists.” (29) This rumour spread among the masses in the blink of an eye.

(To think that it would become this busy)

In my room, before the sun rises, I, 『Carla – Grace』, stretched my body with a “guuuh” sound, then went to prepare breakfast.

I slid off the bed as quietly as I could since the customers were still sleeping, then changed out of my clothes. Since I had become used to this body of mine, I was able to finish changing without any problems, and headed to the kitchen.

Until I reached the kitchen, I would not let my guard down. (30)

In this old and small inn, there would not be any magic for soundproofing or things like that. Of course, I could solve the problem using my own magical power, but since the effect disappears as soon as I fall asleep (31), there is no point in doing so.

It could also be solved by using a magical item, but since I didn't have any such items on me at the present nor the time to make them, this idea was also pointless.

Because of that, I had no choice but to leave the inn as it was.

However, I had already conveyed this to the customers and received their approval, so there is no worry. There was also the plan to prepare several magical items for this matter. As long as the sun had already risen, there was no problem with any amounts of noise.

While I was thinking about what I would be cooking for breakfast today, I continued to head to the kitchen silently.

Author note:

The aforementioned merchant is the merchant who sold the bread to the noble in the previous idle talk. Although that merchant often went to Carla's inn to stay, he hadn't come visiting recently.

I made him the only character who sold Carla's bread outside the inn. I thought to make him a character that had personality sooner or later, but for now, he is going to be treated as Merchant A.

I thought about the story after this chapter and so I made something like a questionnaire.

For now though, I will tell you beforehand that I plan to do something crazy with Carla's magic power. (it's already fixed content per se)

As for the questionnaire: (ED: PLEASE NOTE, WE AT LNW will NOT tell the author your choices, nor will it change the course of the story, because all this was done a long while ago.)

1. Carla will continue manage the inn alone.
2. Increase the number of employees.

I want to decide from either of those choices.

Another thing,

3. Another reincarnated person, the appearance of another tripper.
4. Don't create anything.

Since I wanted to decide between those things,

I tried to make this questionnaire.

Since it the first time I am doing this kind of thing, I don't know what to do, but I will make the deadline at tomorrow 2/12.

Everyone please treat me well.

In the next chapter too please treat me well.

After I arrived at the kitchen, I begun to ponder what I should be making for breakfast.

[Let's make a light meal this morning. Bread and salad.....and corn potage? That should be enough.]

It's a really breakfast-ish light meal.

STEP 1 Making the bread.

The process to make a loaf of bread is as follows. Prepare the ingredients, make the dough, knead it, fermentation (1st round), split it and shape it into a round ball, fermentation (2nd round)/bench time, mold it and finally, bake it. That's the way to do it.

Although there are other smaller details when creating bread such as creating small cuts while benching it (2nd round), I'll leave those out.

All the information I got was from the【Disordered Information Network】.

Hmm? It's been a long time since I mentioned that skill? Well, I guess so.

I bake this prided bread of mine in the morning, afternoon and at night. Since it's a waste to have bread left over, I only bake on order. However.....

Uhn, this process known as fermentation really takes a long time..... (32)

In this world that didn't have soft, fluffy bread, things like yeast didn't even exist. Therefore, I had to create my own natural yeast. When I was able to make a yeast that was considered satisfactory, I tried to make bread but.....

But this natural yeast.....compared to the yeast that is used and produced by the earth, the power of the mushroom is overwhelmingly insufficient. At the very best, to make bread, it needs at least 12 hours of fermentation.

Back then, I was endlessly frustrated over it. I had thought that this recipe could be well received by the local bakeries, and practiced.

I seriously apologize to all of the original otherworlders that I mocked in the past.

This could be even more troublesome than trying to monopolize the market myself.

And so it is for this reason that I want everyone to understand that making bread is really time-consuming. (TL : you know what else is time consuming? Eating a clock.) So, with this kind of conditions, how did I manage to make bread on the order?

Well, I used magic.

After making the bread dough by kneading it quickly, I make the dough into a ball and cast magic onto it.

【Time Compression】

It's a magic that can accelerate time around an object in a fixed space. There is no one who can use this magic except for me. (33)

.....As to why I know this, maybe I'll tell you some other time. (34)

Right now, I have to focus on making the bread.

Step 2 Making corn potage. (35)

This step is for creating the main meal, corn potage.

Since the bread only needs to be baked after this, I set it aside while casting 【Preservation】magic on it.

Does everyone know how to make corn potage? It is surprisingly easy to make.

1. First, stir-fry some chopped onions.
2. When the onions are tender and have a sweet aroma, add in the corn.
3. Saute the corn, and when it is a reddish-golden colour, add bouillon and water in large quantities. (Of course, the bouillon is also hand-made.)
4. At the same time, add in some bay leaves. (I can usually find this)
5. When the water is boiling, taste the corn. It should be sweet.
6. Reduce the fire, and mash some bay leaves up. (This is the most troublesome part. If there was a mixer it would be easier though.)
7. Strain it.
8. When it is completely cooled, then your base is completed! (You can also preserve it in cold storage aka fridge.)
9. Pour the base into a pot, adjust its thickness with milk, add in some fresh cream (also home-made)
10. Flavour it with salt, and you are done!

With this, you too, can make a delicious corn potage at home! (36)

Well, for the potage itself, it would have been faster to just buy it, but of course, such things do not exist in this world.

Ah, while I was focused on work I had not realised that time had flown by, eh?

Some customers should be waking up soon. Let's quickly finish the last touches.

Step 3 – Create the salad

There should be no need to tell you how to make salad. (37)

Furnish it with home-made mayonnaise and it is done.

Mayonnaise, it's popular. (38)

The dining room of the inn was full. Everyone who was here was looking forward to Carla's food.

[Thank you for waiting. This is today's breakfast ~]

[I was waiting for it ~]

[I was coming looking forward to this you know ~]

[Simple is the best!]

[Marry me ~] – (39)

[... Wai – You, it's unfair to steal a march....]

Although there seems to be a big variety of subjects, ignore it , ignore it .

The food lined up in front of the customers.

[Here you are. Then, please say the prayers. 'Itadakimasu' ~]

[[[[[' Itadakima~~ su']]]]]

In this inn, unless you say [Itadakimasu] and [Gochisou-sama] you cannot eat.

——— It's to the extent that even the king himself is no exception.

There were already several people who had been kicked out because of that. Even the king himself was kicked out several times. However, the customers never decreased because the food was delicious.

After that, the customers left the inn in satisfaction.

Well then, time to clean.

Author note:

The impressions increased.

While battling my fear, I read the reviews one by one.

Since there was some good advice, I looked forward to it.

I am also looking forward to the questionnaire.

1. Carla continues to manage the inn alone.
2. Increase the employee

and

3. Introduce another otherworlder.
4. Don't add anyone new.

It seems there are more votes for 3, but our main character will still be more OP!

then

In this inn which did not have many guest rooms, the cleaning and washing surprisingly did not take much time.

Did you do all of it yourself, you ask? Has everyone already forgotten about the miracle called 500 SPD (40)

.....Ah, right now though, the SPD had already been raised. There was a time when I was an adventurer.

While thinking about what I should be making for lunch today, I carried on with cleaning.

During cleaning and doing the laundry.....

During these hours, 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』is changed into a battlefield.

In the 『Dragon Emperor's Mistletoe』, the time of cleaning and doing the laundry was already predetermined, or else it would have caused some dangerous problems.

"Morning – Past Noon – Right after dinner."

It was decided to be these three times.

For the work during noon and after dinner, I only did easy things, so there was none of the so-called war-ish atmosphere in the inn.

You would be able to witness me doing the laundry and cleaning with the usual calming aura I have.

The problem was in the morning.

It had already been determined that morning was when I would be cleaning the whole inn.

To be precise, it was at 8 am to 9 am, this one hour.

During this time, I gave my customers two choices; either leave the inn for the time being, or just don't leave their rooms.

So, why did I have to make such a rule?

As I was speaking, I was also sweeping the area around the front door, then wiping the whole inn with A damp cloth. (ED: A for emphasis. One.) While doing that, I was also washing the bed sheets of the guest rooms, while airing the already cleaned bed sheets in the backyard. On top of all that, I was also making the beds, while placing flowers inside the vases of the rooms.

You don't understand what I am saying? Well, if you did look at what i was doing, everybody would say that too. If I was in the same situation as you, I too, would have the same impression.

Well, I just ran around the inn using superspeed. Furthermore, it was with no distinction between the wall, floor, or even ceiling.

It was a superhuman movement skill that made a person believe they were seeing some kind of shadow clone skill or the like. (41)

At the moment, in the eyes of normal people, I suppose they would have seen that there were eighteen of me inside the inn. It was somewhat scary.

The moment that someone takes a step inside the inn, if by chance, they bump into one of my clones, then I am sure that they would vanish from this world without even a speck of dust.

Actually, there was a merchant(?) who had planned something evil or the like, and two men that had entered were terminated inside the inn.

I suppose they were aiming for a time when I was alone. Surely they never even considered the possibility that it would be they who vanished from this world.

Well then, if I moved at such speeds, wouldn't then inn be destroyed? Perhaps people will have those kinds of thoughts, and so here is a secret of the inn.

First, it's about the structure of the whole inn.

Perhaps I have already said this, but this inn resembled the ones often seen in games with a bar inside it that was made of wood, along with mortar walls.

Normal wood or mortar wouldn't be able to withstand my super speed at all. So why was the inn still safe?

..... Because it's magic metals, that's why.

The metal that looked and felt like mortar was called【Asteroid – Santrice】and the metal that looked and felt like wood was called【Mitalbell】. Those were the metals that the inn was made from.

These two metals; the look, feel and smell are totally ressemblent of wood and mortar, but when they are provided with magical power, their hardness was said to equal orichalcum, and so they were very rare and precious metals.

Since they have these properties, they are able to withstand my running speed.

Of course, the furniture was made using the same metals, so unless they were casted with weight-reducing magic, there was no way that normal people would be able to raise them.

.....Well, I was able to raise it though. Saying that made me kinda sad.

Well, next was the windows. They would normally break as well, but they didn't.

In this inn, the windows were created from 【Gornuigone】's scales, which were made into glass.

With this, even if it was slightly cracked, it would absorb the magical aura in the surroundings and automatically fix itself.

As expected from one of the strongest beings in this world; it is worthy of being something made from a dragon.

Let's take a peek as well at the bed sheets that were washed at superspeed.

They were scrubbed on a washboard (also made of 【Mitalbell】) using superspeed, leaving nothing behind; not even a speck of dust.

Of course, the sheets were made of something special. They were created from the fur of a wolf known as 【Jinro】.

The 【Jinro】 had a special trait in their white fur; no matter what they did, they would not get dirty at all. (ED: Shoutout to Loni4ever sounds like u sis)

Isn't this perfect to be made into a bed sheet? I wondered who had thought of such an ingenious idea. Was it a man? No, I supposed it would have been a woman. (42)

And so, even though it had a simple look, this inn contained enough valuable things to be able to purchase one small country.

Well, the cleaning and washing were more or less completed.

As for today's lunch, I will use the 【Koke】 and maybe I'll make some『Oyakodon』.

Author note:

Well, there's a lot of things that come out but all of them are coinage.

There's no such thing in reality.

About the more detailed information about the material, I will add it later at this place.

2/13 some fix on the wording thanks to GaramMasala-sama.

Addition

and so I will write about the coinage that I mentioned before.

【Asteroid – Santrice】... A word that's created from combining steel – purge – ash – stone. since it seems that mortar is created from a slaked lime.

【Mitalbell】..... A word that's created from combining Metal and Wood. a metal wood .. it's cheap.

【Gornuigone】..... A word that's created from combining Crystal and Dragon. You can just thought it as "Crystal Dragon"

【Jinro】..... from spirit wolf.

【Koke】(Jap : Koke) from a chicken. (TL : Koke can also mean , the cry of the chicken)

[Go to our room tonight.]

The man in front of me said that while giving me a smirk.

[..... What? I'm sorry, I don't quite understand what you are trying to say to me?]

(Well, to be honest, I do understand what they are trying to say.)
[You don't need to pretend you don't know about it, you know? It often happens in this kind of inn, alright? You know what we are talking about, right? Besides, we will take the lead, so it's not a bad thing for you.]

[Well, you just need to entertain us just like you do everyday, okay? If there is another person waiting, you can just service us after that person.]

(These people really are fools.....)

As I glanced around, the customers around us looked at them with disgusted faces.

[Umm ~ What are you trying to say?]

[Haaah, you're some clueless bitch, eh? Isn't this the worn out inn that is said to be ranked amongst the first or second of our country? Furthermore, it's only managed by a single woman, yeah?]

[Then it means that it has good 'service', right? Even if you play dumb, well.....if you get us now, then go to our room tonight.]

As I thought, they are a perverted bunch of idiots.

A worn out inn that recently became prosperous.

One woman rearranged the whole inn.

One woman managed the inn alone.

It seemed that it was known as the "Goddess's Inn" among the merchants.

It was managed by a woman who was worth being called that.

If you only think about these facts, when coated with strong lust and desire, I suppose the conclusion that every male will get is the same, right?

Yep.

They will come to the conclusion that『this is an inn where you can enjoy a service【which cannot be showed to a kid below 18 years old okay ~ !!】』

And so, these two perverts came with that in mind. I'm sure of it.

『Ever since they stepped inside the inn, they were already emitting an aura that screamed 『We hit the jackpot!! 』』

It seems that I am to their liking.....ah, disgusting.

Also, it seemed that today's clothes made things even worse.

Wearing a sexy kind of top that was opened from the breast area to the shoulder, combined with a hotpants that exposed those healthy looking hips.....did I make a mistake?

Since I usually wore more serious clothing, I wanted to change the feeling a little bit today.....

Why did these kind of guys come today.....

Well, since they were customers after all, I tried to cope with it, but the very moment they said to go their room, I told them directly.

[I am very sorry. There's no such kind of service in this Inn.....

if you wish to have that kind of service, I think it's better to just go to the 【Wavering Lamb's Sanctuary】that's placed behind the main street of the commerce district, no?]

That's true, that's true! Jeers like that came flying from another customer.

For now, I tried to make them leave.

[Thus, ca....[Don't say such a stupid thing! Do you want me to rape you in this place? Huh?!]

I wondered if all of the men who were like this always resorted to violence when they were denied.

They would raise their voice, and make others obey using force.

Now that I'm considering it, it feels like the three robbers at that time also said something like that.....is there a template from them, I wonder?

[Please don't raise your voice. It will only annoy the customers around us.]

At that moment, a really weird chill engulfed the two men.

Perhaps those two men were mercenaries. Although there is not much difference between a robber and a mercenary, the difference is that a mercenary will probably not betray you as long as you pay them.

I looked at those two. Perhaps they were quite skilled as mercenaries. They had almost 8 more offensive points than the other customer.

Because of that, it seemed that they had become a little too cocky.

(Well, I shall ask them to leave.)

[Wha-What is it?]

The ruffians were slowly paling because of the mysterious chill that suddenly attacked them.

[I think that you guys are making too much of a racket. Since there is also another customer here, I wish for you guys to leave this place. I will return your payment, so please step outside.]

[O-Oi! Wait a minute! We are customers, you know?! Is it really fine for you to treat us like that huh?!]

Even though I already returned their gold politely, the ruffians were still talking back.

Although their face was already dead-pale because of the chill, they still tried to act strong.

This is becoming very irritating.

[I already returned your payment to you guys. I am very sorry, but your rank already lowered into that of a 『The troublesome people that always take a seat in front of the counter 』.

I won't consider you guys as a customer. Maybe something like a friend that has come to play?

But now that you guys already causing trouble for the “customers” around here, I will lower your rank even more into that of a 『Trash that always loitering around in front of me』, is it alright?]

The ruffians snapped from my words, as if i was making a mockery of them.

[You bitch, I will kill you! ! !]

[Don't become too cocky ! ! !]

The ruffians tried to grab the swords which were hanging by their belts.

[Also, I wouldn't mind that you guys misunderstand by thinking that you are strong, but please don't make any problems for the customers here.

or else]

— Grasp x2

— Crack x2

[Just like these fragile swords, I'll turn you guys into something like this you know?]

Although I had only intended to swiftly seize the swords that were hanging on their waists and grasp it lightly, but I ended up crushing it together with its scabbard.

And so, the swords clattered to the ground with a clang.

The ruffian's faces became deathly pale while incoherently muttering: [The konmishtal's sword was....]

[Well, since you guys are really making trouble for the other customers, could you please?]

I once again asked them to leave, and the next moment.....

[Uwaaaaaaa! A monster in a human skin aaaaaaaaaah, we will be kileeeeeeeeddddd]

[What the hell is with the 'goddess's' inn damm iiiiiiit!]

Without any shame or pride, the ruffians ran away.

Who are you calling a monster?! Who?! What rude people! Rather than that, take these swords with you. It's just a hinderance.

[Ooooooooooh. As expected of carla-chan ~]

[No matter how many times I see that angry aura of Carla's, it always has that oppressive power, eh?]

[But then again, those kind of ruffians still come, eh? Even though I thought that people would finally understand that this is a normal inn.]

[Leaving that aside, Carla-chan, why don't we quickly have our lunch? If we don't hurry up the king will come soon ~]

[Oh my, then that's no good right? I don't want to become an aunty that bothers Carla-chan and our king's romance after all, right~]

[No, umm, it's not like I have something to do with Kail, you know]

[There's no need to be shy about it you know? You're so close with our king to the extent of calling each other by name, right? We, the aunties, will root for you guys, alright ! Do your best, okay !]

— No, there's no need for the cheering and there is also no need for me to do my best, there's really nothing between me and kail you know~!!?

And so, after that, she was teased to no end by everyone. They were able to see the flustered look of Carla.....or rather, they couldn't.

And there is also the king who became depressed because he wasn't able to watch Carla's flustered look. Or maybe not.....

Author note:

This is it.

One woman, inn management. If we are talking about such a thing then there we go! ! Although, I wonder if i is truly and exaggeration? Truly, inside an author's head there is nothing but that.

Managing an inn alone? No way. I reckon I would have some pretty happy memories.

If you are a man, I wonder if this is a way you would pick in life?

We~ll, I'm glad I wrote this story.

though I got quite confused for what to write at the end, but to think that it end up with something that seems ensuring kail position as a main love interest.

Although I got slightly confused as to what I should be writing in the end, I think it will end up with Kail becoming the main love interest. (ED: Reverse harem alert! I dunno tbh) And this time, there was some coinage too. (ED: As in the previous chapter, this means coining your own terms apparently.) 【konmishtal】 ridiculous – metal, a word that come out after combining those two word. Both of it are german.

The setting is that this metal is a little bit stronger and harder then common metal.

Iron sword : atk 8

Konmishtal sword : atk 20

There's about that much difference between it.

Also, although it was said that Carla returned the money politely, it was only the appearance of such. It was more like throwing it back at them.

Also, if we are talking about the "please leave" phrase, it's not something polite, but more of a "Go away!" sound.

Everyone please use it carefully. (TL : there's some relation with how the kanji sound ~) I'm sorry about this long afterword.

Well, let's meet again in another chapter.

2/15 a little bit of change-also adding Postscript

A few hours had passed since I repelled those fools and got teased by the neighbourhood uncle and aunty.

And now, we had arrived to the hour of the night.

Today's customers were all adventurers; the type of people who loved to eat a lot and drink a lot.

Well, since it was difficult (as expected) for me to manage the inn all alone at night, I had asked for the assistance of the old couple who had run the inn. The 『Tirrep Couple』who had supposedly retired were also the 4th and 5th people to become fans of my cooking. Although they had wanted to continue managing the inn, their backs told them to stop, and thus they tearfully closed the inn. However, because they neatly fitted into such a role, I asked for their help and immediately received an OK.

My burden had decreased, you say? That's absolutely not true. If my free time increased it means that the time when I had to work hard also increased.

Dinner time had passed, and now the inn had completely transformed into a bar. While I was rushing around everywhere to refill the glasses of my customers, the Tirrep couple were eating rice and preparing the alcohol and snacks.

If I had to honestly comment on whether I could relax or not, then I would say I could not.

[Onee-chan gimme a refill on my beer here!]

[Right now this onee-chan is still filling my drink! You just wait over there!]

[More snack for mee ~]

[..... Guuh]

[Hear me siiiing ! ! ! !]

(Really, noisy. The guy who is sleeping over there, go, go to your room.)

[Yaaah ~ as I thought. If I go to the capital, it has to be this inn, right ~]

[That's true, the food is delish, the landlady is also beautiful right ~]

[The beer is delish too, right ! ! !]

[Really, it's as the name says, 『Goddess's Inn』]

Thank you. When people say things like that I feel that it is worth it to keep the inn going.

[The only thing lacking, really, is to see the landlady smile ~]

[You're right ~ It's the landlady's 『 Smile 』that no one has ever seen right ? I heard that if you can see it you'll be blessed, you know ? Landlady-san, can you please smile a bit ~ ?]

The customer gave me some words expressing their gratefulness, but because of what they said, the previous clatter of chatter disappeared like a lie.

(Ooi ! ! What do you want me to do ! ? If I smile, then the 『Devilish smile』will activate, you know?! Or rather, because of this skill, I became this expressionless.)

I became flustered on the inside.

[Oi , stop it . I heard that landlady-san had gone through a strong trauma as a child and now she cannot make any expression, you know. I think it's better if you guys don't make her remember about that.]

silence The entire inn fell silent once more.

(Wait, what's with that false setting! ! !)

[Eh ? From what I heard, because her smile is so beautiful, there was a husband who lost all interest in his wife after seeing her smile. Afterwards, he left their house feeling full of sorrow, and because of that, she stopped smiling. Or at least, that's what the wife's parents said.]

The inn became even more silent than before. (43)

(That's wrong because it was complicated....but that is Maruta-san, right! ? What is the maid doing! ?) (44)

[Wait.....according to what I heard, it's so rare for the landlady to smile that if you have seen her smile even once, you have used up all the luck of your lifetime, and that afterwards, only bad things will await you.....]

[Wait, wait. If it's my rumour, if you saw that 『Smile』, then it's so beautiful that it will never leave your head, and from morning to night you will be unable to think of anything but the landlady, and eventually you will die from madness, you know?]

In the inn, there was not a single sound made.

(What's with that kind of setting, huuuuh?! What do you think I am, some kind of demon, huh?!)

[La-landlady, haha, well, really, it-it's not like you have to force yourself to laugh, you know?]

The man who had begun the conversation said that nervously.

(I wonder if it is alright for me to get angry? Or rather, I will really get angry, you know?)

[Alright everyone, all of these gossips are lies you know? There's no need to think so much about it, alright?]

[That's true, it was always hard for this kid to show her expressions since she was a kid; we're sorry for the trouble.] – (45)

It was around the time when I had become angry? It was with such precise timing that the Tirrep couple came out.

(Oh ~ As expected from the Tirrep couple, arriving so precisely on time to make me feel better.)

While continuously giving my thanks to the couple inside my mind, I turn my head toward the customer.

[I am very sorry. Just like what Tirrep-san said, ever since I was a child, it's been really hard for me to show my expressions. It's not like I don't want to laugh, but since it's just hard for me to show it on my expression it seems I made some trouble for everyone.

Again, all of those gossip is just a baseless rumour. If by chance you see my smile, you wouldn't die, so please rest assured.]

As I said that, the inn fell into a weird mood.

After that, in apology for the careless remarks they made for two hours, I observed as all the customers drank as much as they could.

[Tirrep-san, thank you very much.]

Now, it was at night.

All the customers had already returned to their rooms, while the Tirrep couple and Carla had convened in the snack bar to have their own banquet. As they did so, Carla gave her thanks to the Tirrep couple.

[It's alright, we understand that you have trouble showing expressions on your face, and after all, you are the one who runs the inn now.] (Male Tirrep san)

[That's true you know~ After all, Carla chan is already something like a granddaughter to some old couple like us~] (Female Tirrep-san)

[That's right, it's alright to rely on us sometimes. After all, it's one of the amusements of the grandparents to here the selfish requests of the grandchildren.] (Male Tirrep-san)

Really, these two said something that made me happy.

[The beer at this place also delicious after all] (Male Tirrep-san)

[Thank you very much. Then, how about you take some back? I still have a lot in the back, after all...]

[Hoho, then I shall receive it, shan't I? Well then, it's about to time we have to go back....bye.] (male tirrep san)

[That's right. Bye Carla-chan, see you tomorrow.]

Thank you very much.

Grandpa, Grandma,

see you tomorrow]

Even though they were already tired from the work, the steps of the old couple that went to their house, were light.

Author note:

yep , this is it.

i tried to insert Tirrep-couple into the story

how about it ?

for now I think the part that explain about end will end with this .

by the way, the alcohol that they drink at the dinner, i set the setting as the "japanese rice wine" (A.k.a Sake) carla's handmade.

since a sake already come out,

『 if you want to drink some wait till you reach 20 years old !!! 』

well then , what should I do in the next chapter ?

meet you again at the next chapter.

Volume 4 :: Bonus Chapter

Idle Talk 3 (The Love and Gratitude Day)

Today, the town was covered in a cheerful atmosphere.

Everywhere, from men to women and women to men, everybody gave their love to each other.

That's right, today is 『Love and Gratitude day』.

It was an event loved by the people since on this day once a year you can convey your feeling that you can't say on normal days.

Well, in the modern era, it's also called 『The suffering days of a man who isn't popular -day』

Though it's already decided that when you convey your feelings you have to always bring a gift to your opponent, but recently what's popular is chocolate when you're "serious(Honmei)" and for "friendship(giri)" is a cookie.

Well then, on this days. here we have our Carla right here

[Maruoi-san, you didn't unexpectedly sell any chocolate right?]

I try to ask him like it's a whim.

By the way, Maruoi-san is the merchant that often stays in this inn.

[... I have you know]

So you sold it ! ? or rather Maruoi-san, that joke is old right ? how did you know ?

[Rather than that, what are you gonna do with the chocolate? There isn't actually someone you want to give 'honmei' chocolate to right ? ?] – (46)

Maruoi-san, I think you have built your character a little bit more now, you know?

[No, i just wanted to eat some chocolate]

[That bitter thing ! ? You have some strange tastes eh]

[i think Maruoi-san already knows about that thing right. Leaving that aside]

[Carla-chan bought chocolate you guuuuyyyyyyysssss]

[Whaaaaaat this is one serious matter oooooiiii]

[Uoooooooooh, Carla-chan, give your chocolate to meeeeeeeeeee !!]

[You foool !!! It's already decided that I will be the one who will receive it riiiiigghhhhtt !!]

What's with this uproar ? If you guys wanted to eat chocolate that much, you guys just need to buy it right, the chocolate. (In the manner of a certain nobility of a france royal family) Well then, I already bought the chocolate, let's just return to the inn.

[Here, carla-chan, i gave you a cookie]

[Ah, thank you very much]

[Ouh, isn't it Carla-chan, oi , mooom take out the cookie] (47)]

[So, sorry for the trouble]

[Ooh ? Carla-chan, it's rare for you to be here at this hours, aah, right here, cookie]

[Thanks]

Somehow i strangely got a lot of cookies today

What in the world happened?

While continuing to having such thoughts, I return to the inn.

— clang, clang.

[Wazzup. give me water, water]

[Kail, what happened today. it seems that you don't look as energetic you know?]

As I said that, Kail answers as if it's bothersome.

[Aaah ~, today is the love and gratitude day right? There's a lot of nobles that bring presents to me you know . Even though I already said that I don't really need it]

[I don't want any more chocolate . In the first place, why do I have to eat such a bitter thing. Is this torture?] – (48)

What's with that valentine like event it's my first time hearing it you know?

[That's why I ran away. really ~ this place really calms me down ~]

[Thanks, it's alright for you to stay here but don't be too long and return to work okay?]

[Kaa~~ y]

It seems that he really looks tired.

Maybe I should I give him something to relieve his stress? There are various things but he is still a customer that has visited this inn the most after all ~ .

—- Alright.

[Here, I'll give this to you. I think this has can relieve some stress]

[What ? Chocolate ! ? If it's from Carla then I'll happily accept it ! !]

[..... I'm sorry but this is a cake. well, just eat it for dinner. I think tomorrow your fatigue will be gone and you'll feel refreshed you know?]

[Tch ! so it's not chocolate even now Carla's defense is still solid eh, cry]

Just now, this Kail guy clicked his tongue at me right ! ? I will consider it as he doesn't need the cake.

[If you don't want it I'll take it back]

Saying that, I reach my hand out to the box.

[No no, I want it. I need it. I'll eat it. Well then ~]

Kail leaves at great speed.

Only at this kind of time do his action become really swift is it really alright for him?

That day, the entire country was clouded with confusion It's because of the thing that Carla gave everyone.

"Chocolate cake"

Everyone in the country are disputing whether it is "honmei" or "giri".

On the other side at the royal castle.

—A card from Carla —

To Kail

Thanks for always coming to the inn.

I think that you got tired because of the government problem, please eat this sweet thing and become energetic again.

Chocolate has a stress relieving effect you know♪

From Carla

[Sebas I wonder if it's alright for me to consider this thing as 'honmei' ?]

[Since it's from Carla-dono. Isn't it better for his majesty to think about how it is said and what it means?]

The cake is certainly a cake but ...

"Chocolate Cake"

It seems that the image of the king groaning and rolling around in front of a cake for an hour was seen.

That's right it's 2/14.

I wrote this.

Carla's sweets that caused repercussions.

I wasn't quite able to write this skillfully.

A sweet mood, it seems I need to learn what's necessary for it.

Then, in the next chapter I will properly write the main story.

1. Nishioka Sumiko. A stand-up comedian known for playing an sadist 'queen' persona, and the catchphrase 'You damn pig!'.
